ABOUT THE ORLANDO MAGIC

Orlando's NBA franchise since 1989, the Magic's mission is to be world champions on and off the court, delivering legendary moments every step of the way. Under the DeVos family's ownership, the Magic have seen great success in a relatively short history, winning eight division championships (1995, 1996, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2019, 2024, 2025) with seven 50-plus win seasons and capturing the Eastern Conference title in 1995 and 2009.

Off the court, the Orlando Magic give more than $3 million to the local community by way of sponsorships of events, donated tickets, autographed merchandise and grants. Orlando Magic community relations programs impact an estimated 100,000 kids each year, while the team's staff-wide Magic Volunteer Program (MVP) provides more than 7,000 volunteer hours annually. In addition, the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF) which serves at-risk youth, has distributed nearly $33 million to local nonprofit community organizations over the last 37 years.

The Magic's other entities include the team's NBA G League affiliate, the Osceola Magic 2021 NBA G League champions, and the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL, which serves as the affiliate to the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning.

The Magic play their home games at the award-winning Kia Center – voted by fans no. 1 in the NBA for game experience; honored with TheStadiumBusiness Awards' Customer Experience Award; named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year; and awarded the Venue Excellence Award (VEA) by the International Association of Venue Managers. The Magic practice at the award-winning AdventHealth Training Center. The Magic were also recognized by the Sports Business Journal as one of the "Best Places to Work" in sports in 2023 and 2024.

ABOUT THE KIA CENTER

Kia Center, owned and operated by the City of Orlando on behalf of the Central Florida community, hosts games, concerts, family shows and major national events. Since opening in the fall of 2010, the arena has created more than 4,070 jobs, welcomed nearly 20 million guests, hosted over 3,250 events and generated a $6.5 billion economic output.

The Orlando Magic served as the developer and the facility was designed to reflect the character of the community, meet the goals of the users and build on the legacy of sports and entertainment in Orlando. The 875,000-square-foot, Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold-certified building features a sustainable, environmentally-friendly design with unmatched technology and multiple premium amenities available to all guests.

Kia Center was honored with the International Association of Venue Managers' Venue Excellence Award, a distinction bestowed upon facilities that excel in the management and operation of public assembly venues. Additionally, the arena has earned numerous awards, which most notably includes TheStadiumBusiness Awards' Customer Experience Award and was named Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year.

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER: OPEN FOR BUSINESS AUGUST 31, 2022

In January of 2021, the DeVos family, Orlando Magic and AdventHealth announced an enhanced, multiyear partnership that is highlighted by a new downtown state-of-the-art training center for the Orlando Magic, and also a destination sports medicine hub to Central Florida.

The AdventHealth Training Center, a 130,000-square-foot facility located on a nearly four-acre site at South Division Avenue and West Central Boulevard, is the practice and training home to the Orlando Magic. The site is one block from the Kia Center.

Together, AdventHealth and the Orlando Magic are building an innovative health and wellness model that brings whole-person medicine, science and research together to optimize sports performance, while bringing those learnings to the broader community.

AdventHealth, a partner with the Magic for more than 35 years, is also a "Champion of the Community" partner with the team. As a Magic "Champion of the Community" partner, the two remain committed to improving the lives of all Central Floridians.

"Our hope is that this facility is even more than a world-class training center and becomes a true 'win-win' for the community and the team," said Dan DeVos, chairman of the Orlando Magic, when the building opened. "We're dedicated to two things – building a championship organization for the long-term and being an accountable and invested community partner with local residents. Health and wellness are so important to all of us and we're eager to see this center contribute to meaningful outcomes on and off the court."

AdventHealth physicians and clinical leaders work with the Orlando Magic to create a unique medical and wellness model for players that brings all elements of health together to optimize performance, reduce injuries and extend career longevity on the court. The organizations bring top physicians, sports performance experts and researchers together to deliver patients a wholistic focus that includes areas such as digestive health, nutrition, mental health and sleep, in addition to more traditional areas like orthopedics and primary care.

The goal is to establish new standards of care that can be applied to athletes of all ages and stages – from youth sports players, to weekend warriors, to the pros.

"First and foremost, without the commitment by the DeVos family and AdventHealth, we would not be here today," said Magic President of Basketball Operations Jeff Weltman. "This center is a game changer and the investment speaks to how much we care for the well-being of our players and for those that work hard every day to provide them a platform to reach their full potential."

The $70 million facility is a significant investment in the Parramore community and opened in the second quarter of 2022.

The Magic's portion of the facility is designed to optimize performance and provide a world-class recovery space. A large team "family room" acts as the facility's hub, complete with enhanced nutrition offerings and a full kitchen. Leading training and recovery technologies, including an altitude chamber and hydrotherapy offerings as well as an expansive locker room with high-end finishes elevate the player experience. The facility includes two full-size courts overlooked by an elevated viewing balcony. To take advantage of Orlando's warm climate, the design includes covered exterior patios and decks, a creatively landscaped outdoor team space and indoor/outdoor training space. The facility also includes front office and hospitality spaces that celebrate the Orlando Magic's brand and history.

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

AdventHealth's 33,300-square-foot medical hub – designed for elite athletes, as well as youth athletes and weekend warriors – provides world-class, multi-discipline medicine with a focus on whole-person health and sports science. Services include orthopedics, endocrinology, cardiology, primary care, urology, physical therapy, sports medicine and sports performance. Patients also have access to AdventHealth's network of sports-trained gastroenterologists and experts in sleep, psychology and nutrition.

The project incorporates sustainable design strategies including daylighting and strategic sun shading, stormwater management, and advanced mechanical and lighting systems and controls.

The Orlando Magic and AdventHealth also continue its commitment to Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises (MWBE) with the awarding of $17 million of design and construction contracts for the project to 33 local MWBEs. That amount represents approximately 32 percent of awarded opportunities, which is over the city's recommended 24 percent MWBE participation.

The facility was designed by HOK, with Balfour Beatty serving as the construction manager. Partners featured in and around the building include Verizon, Altitude International, Violet Defense, Volta Charging, Jani-King and Massey Services. Each partner provides a unique aspect, enhancing the state-of-the-art experience and commitment to health and wellness.

In May of 2023, the AdventHealth Training Center was recognized with the Downtown Orlando Partnership (DOP) Golden Brick Award, taking home its Award of Excellence. The Golden Bricks recognize projects nominated for community and development which positively impacted downtown Orlando.

THE DeVOS FAMILY

When the DeVos family acquired the Orlando Magic in September 1991, they embraced more than ownership—they accepted a responsibility to steward the franchise with care and purpose. They proudly serve as "caretakers" of the organization, guided by a deep belief that the team belongs to the people of Central Florida and its passionate fans.

Building a Winning Tradition

Since 1991, the Magic have built a legacy of resilience and achievement. Winners of the last two Southeast Division titles, the team has captured eight division championships in total, two Eastern Conference titles, and seven 50-win seasons – including a franchise-record 60 victories in 1995-96. With 19 playoff appearances and a .500 or better record in 20 of the past 35 seasons, the Magic enter the 2026-27 season with a young, dynamic and promising roster.

Generational Commitment, Expansive Vision

Rich and Helen DeVos, along with their children and spouses, made the Magic a passion and priority from the beginning. Today, that commitment continues to grow. Dan DeVos is the franchise's chairman, a role he has held for 16 years, and he is joined by his brothers Dick and Doug DeVos on the team's Board of Directors. A new generation of DeVos family members has stepped forward as well, bringing fresh energy and ideas to the team's leadership.

Ryan DeVos assumed a new role in July 2025 as managing director and Cole DeVos joined the organization full-time through a dedicated management development program. They both serve on the team's Board of Directors, alongside Ben VanderWeide and Jordan Richtsmeier, who joined the Board in 2026.

The DeVos family's impact extends beyond the Magic and includes their leadership of the Osceola Magic, winners of the NBA G League championship in 2020-21. The family also leads the Orlando Solar Bears, an affiliate of the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning. Together, these efforts reflect a broader commitment to enriching Central Florida's sports landscape.

Philanthropy with Purpose

Driven by a passion for people, the DeVos family actively supports Central Florida and beyond. Their philanthropic efforts focus on helping underserved communities, removing barriers and empowering all to reach their full potential. One such initiative is a partnership with the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF), an organization which seeks to positively impact nearly 100,000 youth each year by supporting programs that address health and wellness, education, the arts and homelessness. The DeVos family generously underwrites the operational expenses of the foundation, ensuring that every dollar raised directly aids children who will benefit from its support.

Rooted in Orlando, Focused on the Future

The family invests heavily in the Orlando community. They partner with others to make a difference and contribute to a larger vision for Orlando's cultural and civic growth. Their efforts include investing $12.5 million toward the construction of five community recreation centers throughout Orange County, donating $3 million to nonprofit organizations as part of their 30 Grants for 30 Years Initiative, and in 2025 devoting $750,000 in seed capital to five startup organizations through the Magic Venture Challenge.

The DeVos connection to Central Florida began in the 1990s during Orlando's initial push to attract a Major League Baseball team. The ensuing relationship led to the purchase of the Magic and a lasting partnership that continues to shape the region's future.

Family patriarch and Amway co-founder Rich DeVos, along with his wife Helen, recognized the impact professional sports can have on a community's next generation. They inspired their family to ensure the team serves as a positive and encouraging example for all.

Honoring a Legacy, Embracing What's Next

In 2019, the Orlando Magic honored Rich and Helen by permanently dedicating the home court at the Kia Center in their memory with a "Rich and Helen DeVos Court" memorial insignia. Today, their legacy is not just remembered—it is actively lived out through the family's continued leadership, ongoing community and philanthropic contributions, and an unwavering commitment to Central Florida.

DeVOS FAMILY MANAGEMENT

DAN DeVOS
Chairman/Governor

Dan DeVos is chairman of the Orlando Magic and a member of the NBA Board of Governors. He focuses on strategic planning, governance and growth initiatives for the organization, while ensuring a long-term commitment to core values, enhancing workplace and fan culture, and delivering overall franchise excellence. He represents ownership in business, community and public engagements, working closely with the Magic's leadership team.

DeVos chairs RDV Sports, which includes the Orlando Magic, the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL, and the Osceola Magic of the NBA G League. He also serves as chairman of the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation.

Beyond his role with the Magic, DeVos is deeply involved in sports, business and philanthropy. He is co-owner, CEO and governor of the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League, the top affiliate of the NHL's Detroit Red Wings and winners of the 2013 and 2017 Calder Cups, and serves on the AHL's executive committee. He also owns the Grand Rapids Rise of Major League Volleyball, which began play in 2024, and is co-owner of AC Grand Rapids, a professional soccer team set to join MLS NEXT Pro in 2027.

As chairman and CEO of DP Fox Ventures, DeVos leads a diversified business development and management firm with interests in real estate, fashion, transportation, sports and entertainment. DP Fox employs more than 2,100 professionals through companies such as Fox Powersports and Fox Motor Group, representing 49 manufacturers across 45 locations in Michigan.

Additionally, he serves as president and CEO of Cape Eleuthera Resort and Marina in the Bahamas and is a board member of Amway—the world's largest direct selling company. He is a partner in both the Georgian Automotive Group in Barrie, Ontario, and CWD Real Estate Investment in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

DeVos also supports a range of philanthropic organizations, serving on the board of trustees for his alma mater Northwood University, Hope Network Foundation, and the Grand Valley University Foundation.

He and his wife, Pamella, have three adult children. Pamella is the president and creative director of Pamella Roland, a luxury fashion and fragrance brand.

RYAN DeVOS
Managing Director

Ryan DeVos, who has served as a Magic executive for the past nine years, stepped into an expanded role as managing director in July 2025. He collaborates closely with Magic executives Charlie Freeman and Jeff Weltman, as well as the Magic Board of Directors. His responsibilities include aligning the Magic organization with DeVos family values, strengthening community and partner relationships, and contributing to strategic direction across basketball and business operations. He is a member of the team's Board of Directors.

Prior to his tenure at the Magic, DeVos spent two years at the NBA's New York office in the Global Marketing Partnerships group, managing high-profile relationships with brands such as SAP, Coca-Cola and PepsiCo.

A passionate advocate for Central Florida, DeVos plays a key role in the Magic's community outreach. He regularly participates in initiatives such as the long-running Thanksgiving meals program, which has served thousands of people experiencing homelessness for more than 30 years. DeVos also delivers gifts and holiday cheer to children at Parramore Kidz Zone, visits young patients at AdventHealth for Children, and supports fundraising events like the annual OMYF Open golf tournament and Orlando Wine Festival & Auction.

In 2023, DeVos expanded his leadership in sports as owner and general manager of the Orlando Squeeze, a Major League Pickleball team in the nation's fastest-growing sport. He is also co-owner of Hamlin House, a social and paddle club in downtown Orlando.

He serves on the boards of Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, Rollins College, AdventHealth for Children Foundation, and the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce. A graduate of Rollins, where he earned a degree in international business, DeVos lives in Orlando with his wife, Michelle, and their four children: Kyler, Hudson, Lincoln and Beckett.

COLE DeVOS

Business Management Associate

Cole DeVos joined the Magic organization in a full-time management development program in 2025. He is a member of the franchise's Board of Directors.

DeVos has built a diverse background in the sports industry largely through his involvement with several Michigan-based franchises. He played a key role in launching the Grand Rapids Rise of Major League Volleyball, which began play in 2024, and AC Grand Rapids, a professional soccer team set to join MLS NEXT Pro in 2027. Additionally, he is part of the ownership group of the Texas Ranchers, a Major League Pickleball team based in Austin.

Prior to joining the Magic, DeVos served as director of strategic investments at DP Fox Ventures, a diversified business group with interests spanning real estate, fashion, transportation, sports and entertainment. He also held business and management roles at Stats Perform, a global leader in sports data and analytics.

Deeply committed to community service, DeVos serves on the board of the Grand Rapids Griffins Youth Foundation, which promotes academic achievement, healthy lifestyles and community engagement by making ice sports more accessible to youth in West Michigan. He also supports his alma mater, Hope College in Holland, Michigan, through finish-line scholarships that help students nearing graduation stay on track.

DeVos earned his bachelor's degree in management from Hope College, where he helped lead the hockey team to an ACHA Division III national championship in 2018. He and his wife, Lexi, reside in Orlando.

BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

JEFF WELTMAN
President of Basketball Operations

Jeff Weltman, who brings more than 38 years of experience in basketball operations in the NBA, was named president of basketball operations of the Orlando Magic on May 23, 2017. He is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the team's basketball operations department.

Since arriving in Orlando, the Magic have advanced to the playoffs five times, including each of the last three years, and captured three Southeast Division championships (2019, 2024, 2025). The Magic claimed its second consecutive division title in 2024-25, the first time Orlando has done that since 2008-09 and 2009-10. Orlando secured postseason berths in back-to-back seasons in 2018-19 and 2019-20 for the first time in eight years (since 2010-11 and 2011-12). During his second season in Orlando (2018-19), the Magic clinched a berth into the NBA Playoffs for the first time since 2012 and captured the Southeast Division title, their first since 2009-10.

Orlando selected Paolo Banchero with the first overall pick of the 2022 NBA Draft. He went on to capture the 2022-23 NBA Rookie of the Year, becoming the third player in franchise history to ever win the award. Franz Wagner, the eighth overall pick of the 2021 NBA Draft, was named to the 2021-22 NBA All-Rookie First Team, while Jalen Suggs, the fifth overall pick in 2021, was named to the 2023-24 NBA All-Defensive Second Team. During the summer of 2025, Orlando acquired Desmond Bane from Memphis.

Weltman is also currently on the advisory committee for the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation.

Weltman came to Orlando after four seasons with the Toronto Raptors, including his final season as general manager (2016-17). He joined the Raptors as executive vice president, basketball operations in 2013.

Prior to joining Toronto, Weltman spent five seasons as assistant general manager of the Milwaukee Bucks from 2008-13. During his tenure with Milwaukee, he assisted in all basketball, salary cap and administrative matters.

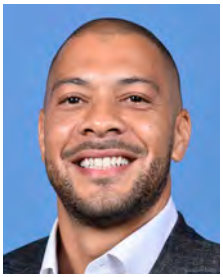

Weltman came to Milwaukee following one year as director of basketball administration in Detroit (2007-08) and five seasons as assistant general manager with the Denver Nuggets (2001-06).

During his time in Denver, Weltman helped engineer personnel moves that shifted the Nuggets from a struggling team with no salary cap flexibility to one of the up-and-coming teams in the NBA. The Nuggets won 49 games in 2004-05, the fourth-most since the franchise joined the NBA in 1976. In 2003-04, the Nuggets posted the sixth-biggest turnaround in NBA history, improving their win total by 26 games and reached the playoffs for the first time since 1995.

Weltman joined the Nuggets after spending 13 seasons with the Los Angeles Clippers, where he served as director of player personnel since 1994.

The New York native originally joined the Clippers as video coordinator in 1988 and was immediately elevated to a scouting position. During his last season in Los Angeles (2000-01), the Clippers improved their win total by 16 – the biggest turnaround in the league.

Weltman graduated in 1987 from Oberlin College in Ohio, where he earned two varsity letters in basketball. He and his wife, Alexis, have twin daughters, Lucy and JJ.

ANTHONY PARKER
General Manager

Anthony Parker was named general manager of the Orlando Magic in July 2023.

During the 2025-26 campaign, the Magic went 45-37 (.549) and advanced to the NBA Playoffs for the third straight year. Orlando went 41-41 (.500) in 2024-25 and secured the Southeast Division title for the second consecutive time. During Parker's first season as general manager in 2023-24, Orlando posted a record of 47-35 (.573), clinched its first berth in the NBA Playoffs since 2020 and won the Southeast Division title.

Parker served as assistant general manager with Orlando for two seasons (2021-23). He rejoined the team after spending four seasons (2017-21) as general manager of the Lakeland (now Osceola) Magic of the NBA G League. Under his leadership, Lakeland recorded 94 regular season victories since beginning play, tied for the most in the NBA G League during that span. They capped off the 2020-21 campaign by winning the NBA G League championship.

Prior to joining Lakeland, Parker spent five seasons (2012-17) as a scout with the Orlando Magic.

Originally selected in the first round (21st overall) of the 1997 NBA Draft by New Jersey, Parker played in 494 career NBA regular season games (423 starts) during nine seasons (1997-2000, 2006-12) with Philadelphia, Orlando, Toronto and Cleveland, averaging 9.1 ppg., 3.2 rpg. and 2.3 apg. in 27.8 minpg., while shooting .404 (596-1,474) from three-point range. He also appeared and started in 22 career NBA playoff contests, averaging 10.9 ppg., 4.0 rpg., 1.4 apg. and 1.00 stlpg. in 34.9 minpg., while shooting .407 (33-81) from three-point range.

Parker also spent six seasons (2000-06) playing professionally in Europe – five seasons in Israel with Maccabi Tel Aviv and one in Italy with Lottomatica Roma. While with Maccabi, he helped them capture five Israeli Super League national championships, five Israeli National Cups and three European titles (two EuroLeague championships and one FIBA SuproLeague championship). Parker was named EuroLeague MVP in both 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Parker played at Bradley University for four seasons from 1993-97. He completed his collegiate career as one of only two players in school history (joining Hersey Hawkins) to finish in the school's top 10 all-time lists in scoring (1,683 points, eighth), assists (355, ninth), steals (159, seventh) and blocked shots (78, fifth). Parker was named Most Valuable Player of the Missouri Valley Conference following his junior season (1995-96) and was honored as one of 15 players named to Bradley's All-Century basketball team in 2003.

Parker also excelled academically while at Bradley. As a chemistry major, Parker was a two-time recipient of the Major Robert H. Lawrence Jr. Scholarship, given annually to an African-American student who does outstanding work in the field of chemistry. He switched his major during his senior year to liberal arts and science.

Parker and his wife, Tamy, have two sons, Alonso and Julian.

PETE D'ALESSANDRO

Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations

Pete D'Alessandro was promoted to executive vice president of basketball operations in July 2023. He joined Orlando as assistant general manager in June 2017 and was promoted to associate general manager in August 2022. Across more than two decades and four NBA front offices, he has led and supported negotiations on trades, player contracts, and league matters, with a focus on roster strategy, salary-cap management and collective bargaining rules.

In Orlando, D'Alessandro's responsibilities span salary-cap strategy, trade and contract structure, and coordination with the league office, and he contributes to player personnel decisions, including the draft, trades, and free agency. In addition to his decades of basketball experience, D'Alessandro is an attorney and member of the New York State Bar, a combination that shapes the franchise's cap and collective bargaining work and the constant task of staying ahead of new and often unforeseen league rules as they emerge. Under the 2023 collective bargaining agreement, that includes navigating the first and second apron rules, which impose new restrictions on trades, exceptions, and roster construction. That same adaptability was on display during the 2020 NBA restart, when he served as the organization's lead interpreter of the league's evolving health and safety protocols, translating complex league directives into an operational plan for the franchise, a contribution that led President of Basketball Operations Jeff Weltman to call him the Magic's "most valuable player" of the bubble.

D'Alessandro came to the Magic after two seasons (2015-17) as senior vice president of business and team operations with the Denver Nuggets. It was his second stint in Denver: he joined the Nuggets in 2010 as advisor to executive vice president of basketball operations Masai Ujiri, focusing on trade and free agent negotiations, salary-cap management, and CBA rules. D'Alessandro played a key role in two of the era's most complex transactions:

the 2011 three-team, 13-player trade that sent Carmelo Anthony to New York, and the 2012 four-team, 12-player Dwight Howard deal, one of the largest trades in league history, which brought Andre Iguodala to Denver. Promoted to vice president of basketball operations in 2012-13, he assisted Ujiri in crafting a roster that produced a 57-win season, the franchise's best regular season record since joining the NBA in 1976 (since tied in 2023-24).

Between his Denver tenures, D'Alessandro served as general manager of the Sacramento Kings (2013-15), overseeing all aspects of basketball operations, including the coaching and scouting staffs, team negotiations, and player acquisitions. He completed three significant trades in his first five months, including a seven-player deal that brought Rudy Gay to Sacramento. D'Alessandro also directed the first crowdsourcing initiative by a professional sports team, an early experiment that brought vetted fan analysts into the front office's analytical process, and was later featured as a speaker at the MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference.

From 2004-08, D'Alessandro worked for the Golden State Warriors. Hired by Hall of Famer and head of basketball operations Chris Mullin, he initially served as director of basketball operations and was promoted to assistant general manager. At Golden State, he was part of the management team that ended a 12-year playoff drought, acquiring two-time All-Star Baron Davis in a 2005 trade with New Orleans and assembling the 2006-07 "We Believe" squad, which defeated the Dallas Mavericks in the first round, the first time in NBA history a No. 8 seed defeated a No. 1 seed in a seven-game series.

Prior to working on the team side, D'Alessandro spent seven years as a vice president at a Washington, D.C.-based sports agency, negotiating contracts on behalf of NBA and international basketball players. He began his basketball career in 1986 as a student at St. John's University, serving as video coordinator for the men's basketball team from 1986-90 under the late Hall of Fame Coach Lou Carnesecca.

D'Alessandro and his wife, Leah, have a daughter, Kate, and a son, Ben.

DAVID BENCS
Assistant General Manager

David Bencs begins his 17th season with the organization and was promoted to assistant general manager in July 2022.

Bencs supports all areas of basketball operations, including serving as the leader of the basketball analytics department, contributing to strategic planning and player personnel decisions, and assisting coaching, player development and high performance departments with their data, process and analytics initiatives.

Bencs served as director of basketball analytics for five seasons (2017-22), where he oversaw the organization's significant growth in investing in basketball analytics. Before joining basketball operations in 2014, he was a founding member of the Magic's business strategy department, where he spearheaded novel analytical approaches in ticket pricing, product development and fan behavior modeling. Bencs also assisted in the planning and development of a best-in-class business data warehouse and technology stack.

Prior to joining the Magic, Bencs was a Research Analyst at TNS in Cincinnati, Oh., where he conducted product and marketing research for a Fortune 100 CPG company.

A native of Hungary, Bencs earned a BS and MS degrees in economics from the University of Pecs. He also holds MBA and Master's degrees in sports administration from Ohio University. He and his wife, Katinka, reside in Orlando, Fla., with their daughters, Zoe (11) and Kamila (1).

SEAN SWEENEY
Head Coach

Sean Sweeney became the 16th head coach in Orlando Magic history on June 1, 2026.

Sweeney joined the Magic after serving as associate head coach for the San Antonio Spurs last season, who reached the 2026 NBA Finals.

Before the 2025-26 campaign, Sweeney was an assistant coach with the Dallas Mavericks for four seasons (2021-25). During that time, the Mavericks reached the Western Conference Finals in 2022 and the NBA Finals in 2024.

Prior to his tenure in Dallas, Sweeney spent three seasons as an assistant with the Detroit Pistons from 2018-21, following a four-year stint with the Milwaukee Bucks in the same role from 2014-18.

Sweeney began his NBA career with the New Jersey/Brooklyn Nets in 2011, starting as a video coordinator before transitioning to an assistant coaching position for the 2013-14 season.

Sweeney's early career included collegiate stops as video coordinator for the University of Northern Iowa, director of basketball operations at the University of Evansville and assistant coaching stints at Anoka-Ramsey Community College and the Academy of Art University.

A native of Saint Paul, Minnesota, Sweeney played one season at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay before transferring to the University of St. Thomas (St. Paul), where he was a three-year starter and earned all-conference honors as a senior in 2005-06.

JOE PRUNTY
Assistant Coach

Joe Prunty begins his second season as an assistant coach with the Orlando Magic.

Prunty began his NBA coaching career with the San Antonio Spurs in 1996 and has been involved in the NBA for 30 seasons, having won three NBA Championships (1999, 2003, 2005) and making four appearances in the NBA Finals (1999, 2003, 2005, 2006). He also won the Emirates NBA Cup with the Milwaukee Bucks in 2024. Prunty has been to the NBA Playoffs 22 times during his 28 active seasons in coaching. He has also been on the coaching staff at the NBA All-Star Game three times (2005, 2006, 2024).

Prior to Orlando, Prunty spent two seasons (2023-25) as an assistant coach with Milwaukee and six seasons overall with the Bucks, after he previously served as an assistant coach from 2014-18. Before returning to Milwaukee, Prunty was an assistant coach with Atlanta (2021-23), Phoenix (2018-19), Brooklyn (2013-14), Cleveland (2010-13), Portland (2008-10), Dallas (2005-08), and San Antonio (1996-2005).

In addition to his time as an assistant coach, Prunty served as interim head coach of Milwaukee twice, including posting a 2-1 record in 2023-24. During the 2017-18 campaign, he was named acting head coach for the final 37 games, led the Bucks to a 21-16 (.568) finish and a spot in the NBA Playoffs, before falling in seven games to second-seed Boston in the First Round. Prunty also served as interim head coach of Atlanta in 2022-23, where the Hawks went 2-0.

A native of Sunnyvale, California, Prunty also has extensive international coaching experience. He was the head coach for Team USA for the USA AmeriCup Qualifying team in February of 2021, leading the team to a 2-0 record. He was also an assistant coach under Mike Fratello in November of 2020 when Team USA went 2-0. Prunty also served as the head coach for the Great Britain National Team from 2013-17, qualifying for EuroBasket in 2013 and 2017. He has worked several camps and clinics all over the world, including at the NBA Paris Game 2020, Basketball Without Borders in Istanbul, NBA FIT Camp in China, NBA Development Camp in Indonesia and clinics throughout London. Prunty has also coached at the high school and collegiate levels in California, including at the University of San Diego High School, where he coached Luke Walton and former MLB pitcher Mark Prior, and at University of San Diego.

Prunty and his wife, Laura, have two children, Luke and Emma.

GREG BUCKNER
Assistant Coach

Greg Buckner begins his first season with the Orlando Magic as an assistant coach.

Prior to coming to Orlando, Buckner was an assistant coach for two seasons (2024-26) with the Milwaukee Bucks. He came to Milwaukee after spending four seasons with the Cleveland Cavaliers, serving as an assistant coach from 2020-22 before being promoted to associate head coach in 2022-23.

Buckner was as an assistant coach for the Memphis Grizzlies for two seasons (2017-19) and was with the Houston Rockets for five seasons, starting as a player development coach (2011-14) before becoming an assistant coach (2014-16).

Originally selected in the second round (53rd overall) of the 1998 NBA Draft by Dallas, Buckner played in 570 career NBA regular season games (117 starts) during 10 seasons with Dallas, Philadelphia, Denver, Minnesota and Memphis, averaging 5.0 ppg., 2.8 rpg. and 1.3 apg. in 19.1 minpg.

From 1994-98, Buckner played and started in 122 career games during four seasons at Clemson University, averaging 14.4 ppg., 4.9 rpg., 2.1 apg. and 1.47 stlpg. in 32.4 minpg. He was the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Rookie of the Year in 1994-95 and is the only player in school history to ever win the award. Buckner earned First Team All-ACC Tournament honors in 1995-96 and was All-ACC Second Team in both 1996-97 and 1997-98. He became the first Tiger to ever lead his team in scoring in four straight seasons and guided the program to three NCAA Tournament bids. Buckner started all 122 games of his career without missing a contest, setting the school record for consecutive starts. He was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

POPEYE JONES
Assistant Coach

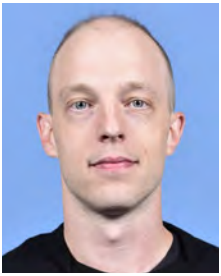

Popeye Jones begins his first season with the Orlando Magic as an assistant coach.

Prior to joining the Magic, Jones was an assistant coach in 2025-26 with the Dallas Mavericks. It was his second coaching stint with Dallas, as he began his coaching career there as a player development coach from 2007-10.

Before going back to Dallas, Jones served as an assistant coach for the Denver Nuggets for four seasons (2021-25), including the 2022-23 campaign, where Denver captured the NBA World Championship. He served as an assistant coach with the Indiana Pacers for seven seasons (2013-20) and the Philadelphia 76ers in 2020-21. Jones also held roles with the New Jersey/Brooklyn Nets for three seasons (2010-13), starting in player development before becoming an assistant coach.

Originally selected in the second round (41st overall) of the 1992 NBA Draft by Houston, Jones played in 535 career NBA regular season games (304 starts) during 11 seasons with Dallas, Toronto, Boston, Denver, Washington and Golden State, averaging 7.0 ppg., 7.4 rpg. and 1.3 apg. in 23.5 minpg. During the 1994-95 campaign, he led the NBA in total offensive rebounds (329) and ranked 10th in the league in rebounding, averaging 10.6 rpg.

From 1988-92, Jones played in 123 career games (92 starts) during four seasons at Murray State University, averaging 16.7 ppg., 11.2 rpg., 1.8 apg. and 1.29 stlpg. in 29.3 minpg. He was named the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year in both 1989-90 and 1990-91, and was a three-time All-OVC First Team member (1989-90, 1990-91 and 1991-92). Jones is the school's all-time rebounding leader with 1,374 and he led the nation in rebounding in 1991-92, averaging 14.4 rpg. He is the only men's player in school history with 2,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds. Jones had his number 54 retired by Murray State.

JOSH BROGHAMER
Assistant Coach

Josh Broghamer is in his first season with the Orlando Magic as an assistant coach.

Prior to joining the Magic, Broghamer spent three seasons (2023-26) as an assistant coach with the Dallas Mavericks. During his first campaign, the Mavericks reached the 2024 NBA Finals. Broghamer also served as Dallas' head coach during NBA Summer League in 2025.

Before his tenure in Dallas, Broghamer worked for five seasons (2018-23) as both director of scouting and player development for the Cleveland Cavaliers. He also spent four seasons (2014-18) with the Milwaukee Bucks as video coordinator and an assistant coach. Broghamer began his NBA career in 2013-14 as a video intern with the Phoenix Suns. He also has coaching experience from working the U16 USA Basketball camps and Adidas Euro Camp in Treviso, Italy.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa, Broghamer graduated from Northern Iowa University in 2013. He and his wife, Laurel, have two sons, Lee and Russell, and one daughter, Helen.

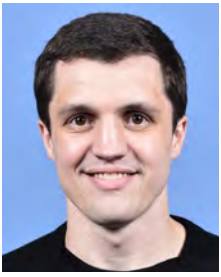

TOM BIALASZEWSKI
Assistant Coach

Tom Bialaszewski begins his first season with the Orlando Magic as an assistant coach.

Before joining the Magic, Bialaszewski was an advance scout for the San Antonio Spurs during the 2025-26 campaign. He was head coach of Varese in Italy in 2023-24. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach for Olimpia Milano for two seasons (2019-21), making the EuroLeague Final 4, and winning the Italian Cup and Super Cup.

Bialaszewski began his career as a video intern for the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2005-06. ARNIE KANDER

Senior Vice President of Player Performance and Wellness

Arnie Kander joined the Orlando Magic in April 2023 and serves as senior vice president of player performance and wellness.

Kander, who brings more than 27 seasons of NBA experience, will be responsible for overseeing the Magic's high performance staff, including the management of athletic training services, injury reduction and rehabilitation programming, strength and conditioning, sports science and recovery, and player nutrition.

An innovator in the fields of injury prevention, sports rehabilitation and physical conditioning, Kander is renowned in the professional sports world for his unique methods of application. He has designed recovery and workout programs that have proven to be successful.

Kander spent 23 seasons with the Detroit Pistons, originally joining the team during the spring of 1992, when he became the team's first strength and conditioning coach. His duties in Detroit included the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries, as well as the design and implementation of specific programs that are aimed at enhancing individual players' flexibility, strength and aerobic conditioning.

Kander also spent the 2015-16 season with the Minnesota Timberwolves as vice president of sports performance. Following his stint with Minnesota, Kander consulted with the Pistons and the Cleveland Cavaliers, while also working individually with a host of NBA players.

A 1987 graduate in physical therapy from Wayne State University, Kander began his career as the sports coordinator at Crittenton Fitness Institute. From there, he went to Rochester Knee and Sports Therapy where he worked as a staff therapist. Kander began his association with the Pistons while working at Rochester Knee and Sports. His interest in strength and conditioning began while studying dance with the Virginia Ballet Company from 1983-86. He has since submitted several research projects on isokinetic strength testing, jump training and developing a jump platform system. While working with the Pistons, Kander consulted and developed conditioning programs for some of the Detroit area's finest professional and amateur athletes.

Kander has a son, Ian, and a daughter, Lindsay, as well as two grandchildren, Jackson and Mae.

ERNEST EUGENE
Head Athletic Trainer

Ernest Eugene begins his ninth season as head athletic trainer of the Orlando Magic. He joined Orlando after spending four seasons (2014-18) as assistant athletics director for sports medicine at Virginia Tech.

Eugene came to Virginia Tech following six seasons (2008-14) as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball program at Marquette University, where he was promoted to director of sports medicine during his final year.

Prior to his time at Marquette, Eugene spent five seasons (2003-08) as the assistant athletic trainer with the Washington Wizards, where his duties included prevention/rehabilitation of injuries, travel administration and injury tracking. Before his tenure with the Wizards, he served as a seasonal intern athletic trainer with the NFL's Washington Redskins in 2003.

A native of Washington, D.C., Eugene received a doctorate degree (Ed.D.) from East Tennessee State University in May 2018. He earned his master's degree in allied health management from The Ohio State University, where he also served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer (2001-03). Eugene is state licensed and nationally certified as an athletic trainer (ATC), Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES), Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES) and in Instrument Assisted Soft Tissue Mobilization by Graston Techniques. Additionally, Eugene is trained in the Kinesiotaping Method through Kinesio University, Cupping Therapy and Intravenous (IV) Concepts and Application. He also holds a Sports Manual Therapy Certification (SMTC) through the Institute of Athlete Regeneration, as well as a certification in Personalized Blood Flow Restriction Rehabilitation through Owens Recovery Science.

Eugene is an active member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA), the National Basketball Athletic Trainers' Association (NBATA), where he currently serves on the Executive Board as the Chairperson Elect, while also sitting on both the Foundation and Alumni Relations Committee. He is also a member of the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM).

Eugene graduated from George Washington University in 2000, earning a bachelor of science in exercise science, with a concentration in athletic training. In addition, while at Virginia Tech, he served as a board member with the Council on Revenue (COR) of the National Athletic Trainers' Association. He was also one of 32 collegiate athletic trainers appointed to the Intercollegiate Council for Sports Medicine in June of 2017. Eugene served as athletic trainer at the NBA's Basketball Without Borders camp in Medellin, Colombia in June 2019.

Eugene and his wife, Jackie, have two sons, Jayden (17) and Mason (13), and one daughter, Harper (11).

DANIEL YU
Head of Strength & Conditioning/Head of Sport Science

Daniel Yu enters his fifth season with the Orlando Magic and his first as head of strength of conditioning/head of sport science. Yu supports the integration of data and training to help improve player health and performance, working alongside the high performance team.

Before joining the Magic, Yu worked for the New York Mets (2021-22), where he developed and scaled player monitoring and testing systems for the entire minor league system. He used data analytics to examine player readiness, workload and injury risk alongside the coaching, performance and medical staff.

A native of Atlantic Highlands, N.J., Yu received his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Connecticut. He then earned his graduate degree from the University of Kansas, where he served as a graduate research assistant. In this role, Yu contributed to player testing and profiling for the men's basketball team during the Jayhawks' run to the 2022 National Championship. He has published and contributed to multiple sport science research journals and books.

BILL BRANCH
Vice President of Player Evaluation and Intel

Now in his fourth season with the Orlando Magic, Bill Branch serves as vice president of player evaluation and intel. He joined the organization in 2023 as director of pro personnel and was elevated to his current role in July 2024.

Branch brings nearly four decades of NBA experience to Orlando. Prior to joining the Magic, he spent 12 seasons (2010-22) with the Portland Trail Blazers as assistant general manager. During his tenure, Portland made eight consecutive playoff appearances, highlighted by a run to the Western Conference Finals in 2019.

Before Portland, Branch spent three seasons (2007-10) with Oklahoma City, helping to guide the Thunder to one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. As director of pro player personnel, he contributed to the team's 27-game improvement in 2009-10, tied for the ninth largest single-season jump ever.

A North Carolina native, Branch broke into the NBA in 1987 as the first intern in Charlotte Hornets history. Throughout the next decade, he rose through the ranks in player personnel and scouting, designed the team's first computerized scouting database and eventually served as director of scouting. Branch also spent 10 seasons (1997-2007) with the Denver Nuggets, where he worked as an advance scout, assistant coach and director of scouting.

Branch also has played a role on the international stage, serving as an advance scout for the gold medal-winning United States Men's National Team at the 2008 Olympics. He also coached in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders program, a development camp in South Africa for Africa's top 100 prospects.

Branch and his wife, Monicah, have two children, Ava and Tate.

10,000! On December 22, 1988, the 10,000th season ticket was sold, ending the Magic's commitment to the NBA of guaranteeing 10,000 season ticketholders by January 1, 1989. Pat Williams (above) makes the announcement of Orlando meeting its season ticket goal.

A MODERN DAY P.T. BARNUM, Pat Williams turned a dream into the Orlando Magic more than 30 years ago.

"I had been working in conjunction with Jimmy Hewitt on this idea of trying to bring a basketball team to Orlando," said Williams. "He had put everything in place with ownership, an arena, the backing of the city. He called one night, late April 1986, and I remember taking the phone call in my kitchen. Jimmy, in his unmistakable southern drawl, said, 'Bubba, we've gone about as far as we can go down here. If you come down here and spearhead it we'll go forward… If you don't, we'll pull the plug'."

Williams could feel the urgency. He knew it was decision time.

"We (Philadelphia 76ers) were getting ready for the lottery in which we had a pick and we were getting ready for the playoffs. We ended up winning the lottery and had a good playoff run which made things more confusing.

"But I knew deep within that the adventure and risk involved in trying to start up a team was really something that I had to pursue. There was a restlessness in my spirit. I needed a new adventure."

Williams took the leap of faith and resigned his position as general manager of the Philadelphia 76ers.

More than 30 magical years later, Williams has certainly lived an incredible adventure.

July 14, 2026
David Steele, who spent 37 seasons as the play-by-play voice of Orlando Magic basketball, both on television and radio, announced his retirement. He was named television play-by-play voice for the Magic in March 1998 and spent 28 seasons in that role, after handling radio play-by-play duties for the team's first nine seasons (1989-98). In addition, Dante Marchitelli was named as the team's new play-by-play television announcer.

#32 RAISED TO THE RAFTERS FOR SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

On February 13, 2024, the Orlando Magic officially retired jersey #32 in honor of Shaquille O'Neal during a postgame ceremony, becoming the first player in franchise history to have his number retired.

"When someone asks who was the first player to officially put the Orlando Magic on the map, the answer is simple - Shaquille O'Neal," said Orlando Magic CEO Alex Martins. "He took this franchise to new heights, both on and off the court, and his legacy is still felt within our organization today. On behalf of the DeVos family, we are excited to honor Shaquille by raising #32 into the rafters of the Kia Center, where it will remain forever."

Magic Chairman Dan DeVos said, "Through his dominating play, larger-than-life personality, and generous contributions to The City Beautiful, Shaquille O'Neal had a transformational impact on this team and this town. Our family and the entire franchise couldn't be more pleased for Shaquille to receive this well-deserved honor, further cementing his enduring legacy here in Orlando as we collectively look back on his tremendous accomplishments in a Magic uniform."

Selected by Orlando with the first overall pick of the 1992 NBA Draft, O'Neal spent four seasons with the Magic from 1992-96. He appeared in 295 regular season games (293 starts) with Orlando, averaging 27.2 ppg., 12.5 rpg., 2.4 apg. and 2.79 blkpg. in 37.8 minpg., while shooting .581 (3,208-5,522 FG) from the floor.

O'Neal was named an NBA All-Star four times as a member of the Magic, named to the All-NBA Second Team once (1994-95) and All-NBA Third Team twice (1993-94, 1995-96). He was also named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team in 1992-93 and was the NBA's Rookie of the Year.

O'Neal still ranks among the franchise's all-time leaders in several categories, including blocked shots (second, 824), rebounding (third, 3,691), free throws made (third, 1,602), field goals made (fourth, 3,208) and points scored (sixth, 8,019). His 27.2 points per game average is the second-highest in team history and he helped Orlando reach the 1995 NBA Finals.

O'Neal was inducted into the Orlando Magic Hall of Fame in 2015 and was elected into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016. He was named to the NBA's 75th Anniversary Team in October 2021.

HALL OF FAME

On March 23, 2026, Alex Martins became the 14th inductee into the Orlando Magic Hall of Fame. He joined the late Pat Williams, Nick Anderson, Shaquille O'Neal, the late Rich DeVos, Anfernee 'Penny' Hardaway, 'founding father' the late Jimmy Hewitt, Tracy McGrady, David Steele, Darrell Armstrong, John Gabriel, Brian Hill, Dennis Scott and Dwight Howard.

The Orlando Magic Hall of Fame honors and celebrates the great players, coaches and executives who have had a major impact during the team's illustrious history. It bridges the past with the future of Magic basketball, and the design provides Magic fans an opportunity to enjoy the exhibits on game nights at the Kia Center. The exhibit is located in the Kia Center on the Terrace Level near Magic Fan Experience.

The inductees are determined based on their overall on and off the court contributions to the team and organization, years of service, impact in the community and general character of the individual.

EMIRATES NBA CUP 2026

The Emirates NBA Cup 2026, the NBA's fourth in-season tournament, will tip off on Friday, Oct. 30. The Quarterfinals (Friday, Dec. 4 and Saturday, Dec. 5) and Semifinals (Tuesday, Dec. 8 and/or Wednesday, Dec. 9) will take place in team markets before the tournament concludes with the Championship on Friday, Dec. 11 at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

The Emirates NBA Cup will consist of two stages: Group Play and the Knockout Rounds.

GROUP PLAY: All 30 teams have been randomly drawn into groups of five within their conference based on win-loss records from the 2025-26 regular season. Each team will play four designated Group Play games – one game against each opponent in its group, with two games at home and two on the road – on "Cup Nights," which will take place every Friday from Oct. 30-Nov. 27, with additional Cup nights on Tuesday, Nov. 24 and Wednesday, Nov. 25.

GROUP PLAY DRAW: To determine each team's opponents in the Group Play games, the 15 teams in each conference were divided into three groups of five teams via a random drawing.

Before the drawing, each team was placed into a "pot" based on its record from the prior regular season (2025-26). In each conference, one team from each pot was randomly selected into each of the three groups in that conference. The pots were as follows:

- Pot 1: The teams with the three best prior-season records in a conference.
- Pot 2: The teams with the fourth- through sixth-best prior-season records.
- Pot 3: The teams with the seventh- through ninth-best prior-season records.
- Pot 4: The teams with the 10th- through 12th-best prior-season records.
- Pot 5: The teams with the 13th- through 15th-best prior-season records.

The Orlando Magic will be in EAST GROUP A, along with the Brooklyn Nets, Detroit Pistons, Milwaukee Bucks and Toronto Raptors. Orlando's Emirates NBA Cup 2026 Group Play games are Friday, October 30 @ Toronto (7:30 p.m. ET), Friday, November 13 vs. Milwaukee (7 p.m. ET), Friday, November 20 @ Brooklyn (7:30 p.m. ET) and Tuesday, November 24 vs. Detroit (7 p.m. ET).

All of the groups are below:

EMIRATES NBA CUP 2026 GROUPS

WESTERN CONFERENCE

WEST GROUP A	WEST GROUP B	WEST GROUP C
Dallas	L.A. Clippers	Golden State
Denver	Memphis	L.A. Lakers
Houston	Minnesota	Portland
Phoenix	New Orleans	Sacramento
Utah	Oklahoma City	San Antonio

EASTERN CONFERENCE

EAST GROUP A	EAST GROUP B	EAST GROUP C
Brooklyn	Cleveland	Atlanta
Detroit	Indiana	Boston
Milwaukee	Miami	Charlotte
Orlando	New York	Chicago
Toronto	Philadelphia	Washington

GROUP PLAY TIEBREAKERS: In the event two-or-more teams are tied within a group, the tie among the teams will be broken according to the following tiebreakers (in sequential order):

- Head-to-head record in the Group stage.
- Point differential in the Group stage.

- Total points scored in the Group stage.
- Regular season record from the 2025-26 NBA regular season.
- Random drawing (in the unlikely scenario that two-or-more teams are still tied following the previous tiebreakers.

KNOCKOUT ROUNDS: Eight teams will advance to the Knockout Rounds: the team with the best standing in Group Play games in each of the six groups and two "wild cards" (the team from each conference with the best record in Group Play games that finished second in its group). The Knockout Rounds will consist of single-elimination games in the Quarterfinals (played in NBA team markets on Friday, Dec. 4 and Saturday, Dec. 5), Semifinals (played in NBA team markets on Tuesday, Dec. 8 and/or Wednesday, Dec. 9) and Championship (played at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis on Friday, Dec. 11). The Knockout teams will compete for a prize pool and a trophy, the NBA Cup.

In each conference, Quarterfinal games will be hosted by the two teams with the best record in Group Play games, and the team with the best record in Group Play games will host the wild card team.

During the Knockout Rounds on days when Emirates NBA Cup games are not scheduled, the 22 teams that do not qualify for the Knockout Rounds will each play two regular season games. The four teams that lose in the Quarterfinals will each play a regular season game against the opponent in their same conference.

PRIZE POOL: The Emirates NBA Cup prize pool will be allocated to the players on the teams that participate in the Knockout Rounds, with allocations increasing depending on how far a team progresses in the tournament.

LEAGUE HONORS: At the conclusion of the Emirates NBA Cup, a media panel will select the Most Valuable Player of the competition and the All-Tournament Team. Selection will be based on the players' performance in both Group Play and the Knockout Rounds.

OSCEOLA MAGIC

On April 11, 2023, the Orlando Magic announced that it relocated its NBA G League affiliate to Kissimmee, Fla., and it was rebranded as the Osceola Magic. Their home is Osceola Heritage Park, playing at Silver Spurs Arena since November 2023.

"We are excited to bring the Magic and NBA G League basketball to Osceola County, Kissimmee and Osceola Heritage Park," said Orlando Magic Vice Chair and Osceola Magic Managing Partner Alex Martins. "We would like to thank Osceola County Chairwoman Viviana Janer, County Manager Don Fisher and Osceola Heritage Park General Manager Robb Larson in assisting us in making this move a reality. We look forward to being an invested community partner in Kissimmee and Osceola County."

The NBA G League is the NBA's official developmental league, preparing players, coaches, officials, trainers and front office staff for careers in the NBA, while acting as the league's research and developmental laboratory. The NBA G League features 31 teams – 30 with one-to-one affiliations with NBA franchises.

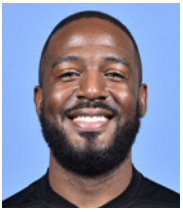

"Osceola County's strategic planning continues to attract top tier organizations that share in our vision for the community," said Janer. "We are honored to have the Osceola Magic make their new home at OHP. When it comes to sports and entertainment, we already host many premium events and organizations. Today, I'm proud that the Orlando Magic organization is joining the list of marquee partners that call Osceola County and Osceola Heritage Park their home. We look forward to cheering on our new team and welcoming fans from all over to experience the magic of Osceola County."

"We're thrilled to welcome the Osceola Magic to our community and to Osceola Heritage Park," said Larson. "This partnership will not only bring exciting professional basketball games to Osceola County, but also provide opportunities to local businesses and tourism. We look forward to working closely with the team to create a memorable experience for fans and players alike."

During the 2025-26 campaign, a record-tying 341 players (61%) on NBA end-of-season rosters had G League experience. In 2025-26, five members of the Orlando Magic spent time in the G League with their affiliate.

The Orlando Magic's G League affiliate was the 2025 Eastern Conference champions, in addition to capturing the 2021 NBA G League championship. The Osceola Magic were named 2024 St. Cloud Chamber New Business of the Year.

MAKE IT MAGIC

OMYF

COMMUNITY, PHILANTHROPY, & INCLUSION

The Orlando Magic believes basketball can be a powerful force for positive change. Through strategic philanthropy, community engagement, youth development initiatives, and inclusive outreach efforts, the organization is committed to creating opportunities that help children, families, and communities thrive throughout Central Florida. Together with the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation, players, partners, employees, and fans, the organization invests in education, health and wellness, homelessness prevention, workforce development, and access to the arts while fostering a culture where everyone feels welcomed, valued, respected, and empowered to succeed. Through meaningful partnerships, volunteer service, and innovative programs, the Orlando Magic continues to strengthen communities and create lasting impact both on and off the court.

ORLANDO MAGIC YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF) was established in 1990 to support Central Florida nonprofit organizations that focus on helping children and youth, especially those most at risk, realize their full potential, strengthen families, and create lasting change in their communities. As the philanthropic arm of the Orlando Magic, OMYF leverages the power of basketball, philanthropy, and community partnerships to invest in the future of Central Florida.

Over the past 37 years, OMYF has invested more than $33 million in over 500 nonprofit organizations, impacting an estimated 100,000 youth annually through programs focused on education, health and wellness, homelessness, and the arts. OMYF's work extends beyond grantmaking by connecting nonprofit leaders, supporters, corporate partners, and community stakeholders to strengthen the region's nonprofit sector and create greater collective impact.

OMYF receives funding through the generosity of individual donors, corporate partners, fundraising events, and community programs including the Orlando Wine Festival & Auction, OMYF Open Golf Tournament, Orlando Magic 50/50 Raffle, online auctions, Orlando Magic specialty license plates, Employee Giving Campaign, and the OMYF Giving Society.

For more information or to support OMYF, visit omyf.org.

ORLANDO MAGIC YOUTH FOUNDATION

OMYF AREAS OF SUPPORT

OMYF accepts grant applications from qualified 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations serving Brevard, Lake, Orange, Osceola, Seminole, Volusia, and surrounding Central Florida communities.

Organizations must align with one of OMYF's four strategic funding priorities:

Health & Wellness

Supporting initiatives that promote physical activity, mental health, healthy lifestyles, nutrition, and overall well-being for children and families.

Education

Investing in programs that improve academic achievement, increase access to quality education, support literacy, strengthen school readiness, and help students achieve long-term success.

Homelessness

Supporting prevention services, housing stability programs, and wrap-around resources that help families and youth experiencing housing insecurity.

The Arts

Providing access to music, theater, visual arts, dance, and cultural experiences that foster creativity, confidence, and self-expression.

OMYF GRANTS

Through its annual Major Grant (2 cycles), Micro Grant (4 cycles), and Linda Landman Gonzalez Leadership Grant programs, the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation invests in nonprofit organizations that are creating meaningful opportunities for children and families throughout Central Florida.

In 2025-26, OMYF awarded $1.6 million in funding through 77 grants, supporting organizations across Orange, Seminole, Osceola, Lake, Brevard, and Volusia counties. Investments focused on programs advancing education, health & wellness, homelessness prevention, and access to the arts. OMYF awarded 32 Major Grants, 43 Micro Grants, and 2 Linda Landman Gonzalez Leadership Grants to nonprofit partners serving youth and families throughout the region.

Recognizing that nonprofit impact extends beyond funding, OMYF expanded its support model during the 2025-26 grant cycle by introducing professional development opportunities for all grantee organizations. As part of this commitment, OMYF hosted two professional development convenings, one in the fall and one in the spring, featuring nationally recognized experts from the Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy. Through this two-day learning experience, nonprofit leaders gained access to fundraising best practices, donor engagement strategies, leadership development resources, and sector-leading research designed to strengthen organizational sustainability and capacity.

Additionally, OMYF launched an exclusive Drop The Mic Cohort for grantee organizations, bringing nonprofit leaders together during both the fall and spring for a collaborative learning experience focused on storytelling, fundraising communications, donor engagement, and public speaking. The cohort provided practical tools, peer-to-peer learning opportunities, and personalized coaching designed to help organizations better communicate their mission, deepen donor relationships, and expand their community impact.

Through funding, professional development, and strategic relationship-building, OMYF continues to strengthen the nonprofit sector and serve as a catalyst for lasting change throughout Central Florida.

OMYF

2025-26 OMYF GRANTEE SPOTLIGHTS

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida | $100,000

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida addresses food insecurity by providing nutritious meals, fresh food distribution, and hunger-relief resources throughout the region. OMYF's investment helps ensure that children and families have reliable access to healthy food and vital support services.

Junior Achievement of Central Florida | $50,000

Junior Achievement empowers students through hands-on learning experiences focused on financial literacy, workforce readiness, and entrepreneurship. Programs help young people develop the skills and confidence needed to succeed in school, careers, and life.

Commission 127 | $50,000

Commission 127 provides housing and comprehensive support services for young women transitioning out of foster care. Through mentorship, life-skills training, and stable housing, participants are empowered to build independent and successful futures.

Orlando Family Stage | $35,000

Orlando Family Stage uses professional theater and arts education to inspire creativity, foster literacy, and cultivate life skills among children and families throughout Central Florida.

OMYF

OMYF FUNDRAISING

Orlando Wine Festival & Auction
The Orlando Wine Festival & Auction is OMYF's signature fundraising event and one of Central Florida's premier philanthropic weekends. Hosted annually at Four Seasons Resort Orlando, the event brings together world-class wine, culinary experiences, exclusive auctions, and Orlando Magic experiences, generating critical funding for local nonprofit organizations serving children and families throughout the region.

OMYF Open Golf Tournament
The OMYF Open Golf Tournament hosts more than 200 golfers, Orlando Magic alumni, community leaders, and corporate partners for a premier fundraising experience. Proceeds directly support OMYF grantmaking and community programs.

Orlando Magic 50/50 Raffle
Fans can support OMYF while attending Orlando Magic games through the popular 50/50 Raffle program. Half of the net proceeds benefit OMYF while the remaining portion is awarded to a lucky fan.

OMYF Online Auctions
Throughout the year, OMYF offers exclusive online auctions featuring autographed memorabilia, experiences, travel packages, and one-of-a-kind Orlando Magic opportunities.

Individual & Corporate Giving
Through the generosity of individual donors, corporate partners, and community supporters, OMYF is able to invest in programs that create lasting opportunities for children and families throughout Central Florida. Contributions of all sizes help fund grants, professional development opportunities for nonprofit partners, and initiatives that strengthen the region's nonprofit sector. Donors can support OMYF through one-time gifts, recurring contributions, corporate sponsorships, workplace giving programs, and multi-year philanthropic commitments.

OMYF Giving Society
The OMYF Giving Society recognizes philanthropic leaders who make a multi-year commitment to strengthening Central Florida communities through sustained investment in youth and family-focused programs.

Orlando Magic Specialty License Plate
Fans can support OMYF every day through the Orlando Magic specialty license plate. Proceeds directly benefit youth-focused nonprofit initiatives throughout Central Florida.

Visit omyf.org for more information.

RICH AND HELEN DEVOS COMMUNITY ENRICHMENT AWARD

Magic owners Rich and Helen DeVos established this program to honor an Orlando Magic player who dedicates his efforts beyond the basketball court to enhance the lives of others. In selecting the player each year, the anonymous committee looks at several criteria including the three "A's": Action, Attitude and Atmosphere. Specifically, that means the player's actions off the court are honorable in nature, the player displays a respectable attitude toward those he encounters, and the player shies away from situations that may be negatively perceived and provides a positive environment for others through his actions. The winner receives $20,000 that will be donated to the charity of the honored player's choice. Anthony Black was selected as the winner of the 2026 Rich and Helen DeVos Community Enrichment Award.

NBA FOUNDATION

The NBA Foundation is the NBA's first-ever charitable foundation dedicated to creating economic opportunity for under-resourced youth ages 14-24. Established in 2020 through a 10-year, $300 million commitment from NBA team governors, the Foundation invests in programs and partnerships that help young people successfully transition from school to meaningful employment. The Foundation supports nonprofit organizations that provide workforce development, career readiness, mentorship, job training, entrepreneurship, and career advancement opportunities in NBA markets across the United States and Canada.

Since its inception, the NBA Foundation has awarded more than $160 million to nonprofit partners and helped expand access to career pathways for hundreds of thousands of young people. Through grantmaking, strategic partnerships, signature programs, and collaboration with NBA teams, the Foundation is helping build a stronger future workforce while creating lasting impact in communities across North America.

The Foundation's work extends beyond funding by connecting nonprofit organizations with NBA teams, sharing best practices, amplifying grantee stories, and creating opportunities for collaboration and visibility. Through initiatives such as the HBCU Fellowship Program, All-Star Pitch Competition, and Tech Challenge, the NBA Foundation continues to invest in the next generation of leaders while advancing economic mobility and career success for young people.

ORLANDO MAGIC & NBA FOUNDATION

Since 2021, the Orlando Magic and the NBA Foundation have partnered to support nonprofit organizations throughout Central Florida that are creating pathways to education, workforce development, mentorship, and career success for young people. Through this partnership, local organizations have received more than $2.7 million in funding to expand opportunities for youth and strengthen communities across the region.

MAGIC VOLUNTEER PROGRAM (MVP)

Since 2006, the Orlando Magic has contributed more than 100,000 volunteer hours to the Central Florida community. The past five seasons, Magic staff, coaches and players reached an estimated 200,000 youth and invested over 35,000 hours back into the community. Volunteer programs this past year included MLK Week of Service, Thanksgiving at the Coalition for the Homeless, Magic Turkey Giveaways, Orlando Wine Festival & Auction benefiting the OMYF, Block Out Hunger, and Pepsi Holiday Shopping Spree.

MAGIC MAKERS

Through the Magic Makers program, the Orlando Magic provides VIP experiences for Central Florida youth who have significant or chronic medical conditions, and are big Magic fans! The one-of-a-kind VIP experience includes premium seating to a Magic home game, a meet-and-greet with Magic players and/or Community Ambassadors, the opportunity to sit courtside for pregame warm-ups, and a personalized Magic jersey along with food and beverage.

MAGIC SEASON OF GIVING

The holidays signify a time of joy and giving. However, for some, it can be a stressful time due to economic circumstances. To ease the financial burden, Orlando Magic players, leadership, staff and partners spread holiday cheer through meal distributions, gift-giving, shopping sprees, hospital visits and special holiday experiences for local organizations, children and families in need.

- THANKSGIVING OUTREACH: In what has become one of the organization's longest-standing traditions, Orlando Magic leadership, staff, Community Ambassadors, volunteers and families served a special Thanksgiving breakfast at the Coalition for the Homeless of Central Florida for the 33rd year, providing a warm holiday meal to residents and unsheltered individuals facing homelessness and food insecurity.
- BLOCK OUT HUNGER: The Orlando Magic, Florida Blue, Jase Richardson, Coach Jamahl Mosley and staff teamed up at the Eatonville Boys & Girls Club to provide more than 200 families with Thanksgiving meals, including turkeys, sides and other essential groceries, along with games, face painting and Magic-branded giveaways.
- MAGIC TOYS FOR TOTS: As a new fan-facing Season of Giving initiative, the Orlando Magic partnered with Toys for Tots and Marines to host a toy drive around the December 5 Magic vs. Heat game, giving fans the opportunity to donate new toys through collection bins at Kia Center and Team Shop locations.

- MAGIC STAR TREE: For the 22nd year, Orlando Magic staff, alongside Ryan and Michelle DeVos, adopted holiday wish lists and hosted a holiday party at Kia Center for 100 local youth from Lift Orlando, Unity Youth Association, Eatonville and Pine Hills Boys & Girls Club, providing gifts, Orlando Magic-branded basketballs, food, games and holiday activities.
- MAGIC BIG GIVE: The Orlando Magic partnered with the Foundation for Foster Children to surprise the Benjamat family during halftime of the Magic vs. Hornets game, providing holiday gifts, household essentials, a 65" TV, kitchen items, phones and tablets with one year of service, partner experiences and gift bundles, a $5,000 home furnishings donation from AdventHealth, and a brand new 2026 Kia Sorento EX.
- ADVENTHEALTH HOLIDAY VISIT: Ryan and Michelle DeVos, joined by mascots from the Orlando Magic, Orlando Squeeze, Solar Bears and Osceola Magic, along with the 321 Hype Team, visited AdventHealth for Children to deliver holiday baskets, gifts and cheer to patients and staff.
- EARLY LEARNING COALITION HOLIDAY PARTY: The Orlando Magic, Ryan DeVos and Michelle DeVos hosted a holiday party for youth from the Early Learning Coalition at West Lakes Early Learning Center, providing a meal and gift bags as part of the celebration.
- HOLIDAY MAGIC WITH PEPSI: Paolo Banchero and Tristan da Silva, in partnership with PepsiCo, hosted 100 Boys & Girls Clubs youth from multiple Central Florida branches for a holiday shopping spree at Walmart, where each child received gift cards to shop for gifts and essentials alongside Magic players, Community Ambassadors, staff and Pepsi volunteers.
- JETT HOWARD HOLIDAY SHOPPING EXPERIENCE: Jett Howard treated approximately 15 youth from the Alzheimer's Association to a holiday shopping spree at Dick's Sporting Goods, continuing his commitment to supporting children and families impacted by Alzheimer's.
- WENDELL CARTER JR. HOLIDAY SUITE EXPERIENCE: Wendell Carter Jr. and his A Platform^2 Foundation hosted 10 students from Oak Ridge High School and Evans High School for a holiday suite experience at Kia Center, where the students watched the Magic game from a suite, met Carter pregame and were surprised with laptops and Apple AirPods.
- FRANZ & MOE WAGNER HOLIDAY EXPERIENCE: Franz Wagner and Moritz Wagner hosted 30 youth from New Image Youth Center at the AdventHealth Training Center, surprising each child with $200 in gifts and celebrating the holidays with dinner, games, basketball activities and time with the Wagner brothers.
- TRISTAN DA SILVA HOLIDAY SUPPORT: Tristan da Silva provided holiday gifts for two families from One Heart for Women and Children and also participated in the PepsiCo holiday shopping spree supporting 100 Boys & Girls Clubs youth.
- ANTHONY BLACK HOLIDAY SURPRISE: Anthony Black donated $7,500 in gifts to a local family in need through his AB Cares foundation, with Magic Community Ambassadors and staff joining him to surprise the family at their home before the holidays.
- OVERALL IMPACT: Across its 2025 Season of Giving efforts, the Orlando Magic supported more than 250 individuals and provided more than $40,000 in gifts and donations through player, staff, partner and organization-led holiday initiatives.

COMMUNITY IMPACT / INCLUSION

SEATS FOR SOLDIERS NIGHT

For the 22nd consecutive year, the Orlando Magic and L3Harris Technologies teamed up to honor active-duty military members, veterans and their families through Seats for Soldiers Night. More than 2,000 military members and their families received tickets courtesy of the Orlando Magic, L3Harris Technologies and season ticket holders, providing an opportunity to attend the game and participate in special military recognitions and experiences throughout the evening.

In the lead up to Seats for Soldiers Night, the Orlando Magic, L3Harris Technologies and Soldiers' Angels partnered on a volunteer service project where participants packed meals and care packages to support veterans, military families and service members, extending the impact of the initiative beyond game night and into the local military community.

HOMETOWN HERO

The Hometown Hero program, presented by L3Harris Technologies, is an ongoing, in-game recognition honoring military and first responders in the Central Florida community including emergency medical, fire, police and military personnel. This past season, Orlando Magic and L3Harris Technologies recognized more than 41 first responders by inviting them to attend an Orlando Magic home game. The Hometown Heroes were recognized during a pre-game presentation for their heroism and dedication to serving our local community.

AUTOGRAPH SESSIONS

The Orlando Magic players and coaches participate in two internal autograph sessions during the season. The autographed basketballs, photographs, jerseys, shoes and other items are donated to local non-profit organizations to help them raise funds through their silent and live auctions, raffles and other special events. Every year, on average, more than 150 items are distributed with an estimated value of more than $30,000.

SHARE THE MAGIC TICKET PROGRAM

The Share the Magic Ticket Program facilitates the distribution of tickets donated by Orlando Magic players, coaches, executives and corporate partners to Central Florida nonprofit organizations serving youth and families. During the 2025-26 season, the program provided more than 5,260 tickets to 35 nonprofit organizations, generating over $225,000 in charitable contributions and creating memorable game-day experiences through player meet-and-greets, pregame experiences, meal vouchers and other exclusive opportunities.

INCLUSION AT THE ORLANDO MAGIC

Throughout the season, the Orlando Magic celebrates the richness that each culture contributes to Central Florida. The organization is committed to fostering an inclusive environment, one where employees, community partners, and fans feel welcomed, respected, and appreciated. The inclusive approach extends well into the community through strategic partnerships with respected civic organizations, including all local chambers of commerce and numerous professional associations.

ANNUAL INITIATIVES HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- ORLANDO MAGIC EMPLOYEE RESOURCE GROUPS (ERGs) & ALLYSHIP AT WORK
  ERGs and Allyship training brings team members together to create an environment in which employees, community partners and fans all feel welcomed, valued, and appreciated.

- CHAMBER BUSINESS AFTER HOURS
  The Orlando Magic sponsors an after-hours event for the business community to help expand the supplier base. The event connects small business owners and community leaders from organizations like the African-American Chamber of Commerce, Asian-American Chamber of Commerce, Central Florida Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce, Central Florida Partnership, Prospera, Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro Orlando, Indian-American Chamber of Commerce, Kissimmee/Osceola Chamber of Commerce, Orlando Economic Partnership, National Entrepreneurial Center, Orlando Regional Chamber of Commerce, Seminole Chamber of Commerce, Visit Orlando, West Orange Chamber of Commerce, and the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce. These organizations continue to strengthen our region and are core to making Central Florida economically vibrant and unique.
- MULTICULTURAL OUTREACH
  Initiatives include the Hispanic Business Summit, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration/Days of Service, Black History Month activities such as the Black Business and Hispanic Impact Summits, India Day, Gamechange(hers) Leadership Summit, Pride Month, Social Impact Month and Magic of Inclusion for those with disabilities.

ORLANDO MAGIC YOUTH PROGRAMS

ORLANDO MAGIC YOUTH BASKETBALL

The mission of Orlando Magic Youth Basketball is to inspire youth through the game of basketball, developing lifelong fans of the Orlando Magic with a foundation of skills and positive, healthy values. Among the numerous programs offered for youth participation and engagement, Orlando Magic Youth Basketball features training camps, specialty and free community clinics, Jr. Magic basketball leagues, Orlando Magic Kids Club, and exclusive opportunities for young athletes and coaches. Learn more at orlandomagicyouth.com.

Orlando Magic youth basketball camps & clinics offer expert instruction by the Orlando Magic in conjunction with The National Basketball Academy to youth of all skill levels, ages 7-17. Each year, the Magic hosts over 50 week-long camps and specialty clinics throughout Central Florida, including Orlando, Lakeland and Tampa, featuring expert instruction, giveaways and a free ticket to a Magic home game for each participant.

Jr. Magic basketball leagues operate throughout Central Florida and offer competitive; co-ed play in fun settings. The Magic partners with several community organizations and sites, including the Central Florida YMCA, Orange County Parks and Recreation and the City of Sanford. All participants receive special rewards, giveaways and a ticket to a Magic home game.

ORLANDO MAGIC KIDS CLUB

The Orlando Magic Kids Club is a free membership program for the newest Magic fans! Members receive Orlando Magic ticket offers, retail and camps discounts, giveaways, unique in-game experiences and a monthly newsletter. Families are welcome to register their children of all ages. Register now by visiting orlandomagicyouth.com.

STUDENT ATHLETE SPOTLIGHT

The Orlando Magic has partnered with AdventHealth to create the Student Athlete Spotlight recognition program. This program highlights an outstanding Central Florida high school student-athlete each month that not only excels in their sport, but also in the classroom and their community. Visit orlandomagicyouth.com to submit a nomination.

YOUTH PROGRAMS / NBA CARES

PICK, READ & ROLL

Through a special partnership between the Orlando Magic and Orange County Public Schools, Pick, Read & Roll is designed to encourage young students to read more books and improve their reading skills. The annual program celebrates fourth graders' reading improvement and rewards top students with unique recognition and on-court experiences during a special event at Kia Center. In 2019, the participating Title 1 schools achieved a 30 percent increase in their reading scores and surpassed the average score increase of other schools.

HER TIME TO PLAY

The WNBA and NBA recognize the valuable role sports can play in the development of young girls and the advancement of women as leaders in society. Her Time To Play (HTTP) is a national initiative that is dedicated to championing change on behalf of girls and women. It's been proven that through sports, girls learn important life skills such as teamwork, leadership, and self-confidence. Through a partnership with AdventHealth, our goal is to encourage girls' involvement in basketball while increasing visibility to opportunities for women in leadership across professional sports.

MAGIC FIT PROGRAM

The MAGIC Fit Program targets youth to educate them on the importance of healthy habits and routine physical exercise. The program's goal is to encourage physical activity through playing the game of basketball and healthy living for youth. The curriculum is designed to help students develop fundamental movement and basketball skills as well as provide opportunities for them to increase and practice their relational and personal resilience. Throughout a 4-week period, students will dive into a new adventure that includes an interactive story followed by an activity that embeds Florida State PE and Resilience standards. Participating PE teachers will have the opportunity to register their schools to be selected for an Orlando Magic PE class takeover.

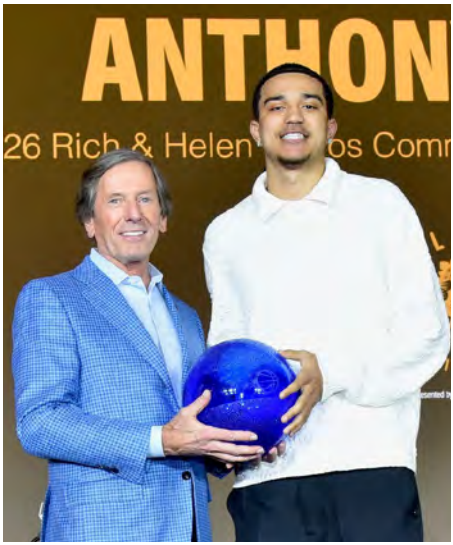

NBA SOCIAL IMPACT & INCLUSION AND NBA CARES

NBA Social Impact & Inclusion drives change on issues facing fans and communities by advancing needed resources and proven partners. We create data-driven strategies and programming to empower colleagues to bring their best self. NBA Cares works with NBA players and teams to highlight important issues through the NBA's digital, social and broadcast channels, live events and partnerships.

ORLANDO WINE FESTIVAL AND AUCTION

Benefiting the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation

The Orlando Magic hosts a premier fundraising event benefiting the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation, which supports the children of Central Florida. With the participation of Orlando Magic players and coaches, guests will engage in a standout occasion that combines sports, food, and wine in the entertainment hub of Orlando. The Orlando Wine Festival and Auction aims to build on its past success during its seventh annual event from February 26 to February 28, 2027.

Last year, the event raised a record $2+ million for underserved youth. Highlights included live-auction lots featuring sports, wine, culinary, luxury, and travel experiences. Top lots included the Magical Celebration Vacation Package, Live the Ultimate Lamborghini Life, Oceanside Luxury & Golf at Albany, Fly Away with the Magic, A Tradition Unlike Any Other, and Aspen Adventure.

"This is a major event for us. There are so many needs out there," said Magic Chairman Dan DeVos. "It's something my parents have always done [community engagement and outreach]. They always taught us that everybody has something to give – time, talent, treasure, whatever it may be. That's just part of what we do. It's sort of our DNA. Wherever you are, throughout the country and throughout the world, there are people that are in need – and it's our responsibility to help."

Perfect for wine and sports lovers, the Annual Orlando Wine Festival and Auction will be held at the Four Seasons Resort Orlando. It will feature more than 40 wineries and 8 award-winning chefs, all supporting the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation, a charity that helps at-risk kids in Central Florida.

The weekend-long event kicks off with exclusive vintner dinners around Central Florida on Friday, February 26. The outdoor festival on Saturday, February 27, will feature live music, auction displays, local and celebrity chefs, wineries, and food pavilions. This will be followed by a four-course dinner prepared by an award-winning chef, paired with world-renowned wines. Guests will also attend the OMYF Grant Ceremony at the Orlando Magic home game on February 28, where they can hear from grant recipients and learn how the funds from the festival have a big impact on our community.

ORLANDO WINE FESTIVAL AND AUCTION

"This is an event unlike any other in the Central Florida community," said Magic Vice Chair Alex Martins. "It's an opportunity to raise funds for kids in Central Florida, bringing together the best wine and chefs from around the country. For people who love food, wine, and want to help at-risk children, it's a great opportunity to come together in a wonderful atmosphere and hopefully raise a lot of money."

The event has featured a star-studded cast of chefs and world-renowned wineries. Chefs and wineries generously donate their time and resources to provide the most decadent experiences for the vintner dinners on Friday and the 450 guests at the festival on Saturday.

NICK ANDERSON
Community Ambassador

As part of its continued commitment to the Central Florida community, Nick Anderson joined the organization as community ambassador during the summer of 2006. Anderson, who was a staple in the Orlando community as a player for a decade, will continue to take part in a variety of community outreach efforts.

The Magic's first-ever NBA Draft selection out of the University of Illinois (11th overall, 1989 NBA Draft), Anderson played ten seasons for Orlando from 1989-99. In 692 career regular season games with the Magic, he averaged 15.4 ppg., 5.3 rpg., 2.8 apg. and 1.45 stlpg. Anderson still ranks as the franchise's all-time leader in games played (692), steals (1,004) and three-point field goals attempted (2,480). He also stands second on the Magic's all-time list in points scored (10,650), field goals made (4,075), three-point field goals made (900), field goals attempted (8,976) and minutes played (22,440), fourth in free throws made (1,600) and rebounds (3,667), fifth in assists (1,937) and eighth in blocked shots (338).

In 2014, along with Pat Williams, Anderson was an inaugural inductee into the Orlando Magic Hall of Fame. He was also inducted into the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame in September 2016 and into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame in November 2019.

Anderson may best be remembered for one of the greatest moments in Magic history – stealing the ball from Michael Jordan during the closing seconds of Game 1 of the 1995 Eastern Conference Semifinals, allowing Orlando to win the contest and eventually move on to the NBA Finals.

In 2005-06, Anderson was the first honoree as part of the Magic's "Commitment to the Past" program, a multi-season effort aimed at embracing Magic history and the team's former players. Anderson won the inaugural Rich and Helen DeVos Community Enrichment Award in 1995-96. He has also served as a pregame and postgame television analyst for select games.

BO OUTLAW
Community Ambassador

As part of its continued commitment to the Central Florida community, Charles "Bo" Outlaw joined the organization as community ambassador in February 2008. Outlaw, who was extremely active in the Orlando community as a player with the Magic for more than six years, will continue to take part in a variety of community outreach efforts.

A 14-year NBA veteran, Outlaw played in 914 career NBA regular season games with the L.A. Clippers, Orlando, Memphis and Phoenix, averaging 5.4 ppg., 4.9 rpg., 1.6 apg. and 1.31 blkpg. in 22.7 minpg. Outlaw also appeared in 22 career playoff outings, averaging 3.3 ppg., 4.0 rpg. and 1.2 apg. in 18.9 minpg.

Outlaw spent six-plus seasons (360 games-222 starts) with the Magic from 1997-2001 and 2005-07. He still ranks on the Magic's all-time career lists in blocked shots (4th, 536) and rebounds (9th, 2,160).

In July 2026, Outlaw was inducted into the Northside Independent School District (Texas) Athletics Hall of Honor. He is also a member of the South Plains College Hall of Fame.

During his time with the Magic, Outlaw was recognized for his outstanding work in the Central Florida community with the Rich and Helen DeVos Community Enrichment Award. He won the award three times (1998-99, 2005-06, 2006-07) and is one of only two players in team history to accomplish that feat. Outlaw has also served as a pregame and postgame television analyst for select games.

STUFF THE MAGIC MASCOT

On October 27, 1988, STUFF literally burst onto the scene when a large egg was discovered in front of the old Amway Arena. No one is sure where it came from or how it arrived in Orlando. Witnesses, however, reported a giant explosion followed by a shower of deflated basketballs, Orlando Magic bumper stickers and puffs of green smoke. The oversized green dragon that emerged from the commotion had no idea of the impact he would soon have on "The City Beautiful."

STUFF is one of the most recognizable mascots in professional sports. STUFF prides himself as the Orlando Magic's number one fan, and he relishes his role as the team "funny guy." Whether seen backflipping off a 16-foot ladder, shooting his signature backwards half-court shot, or perhaps throwing a cake in the face of an unsuspecting fan from another team, STUFF seldom seems to slow down his pace. Although unpredictable at times, his comedic timing and impromptu style is guaranteed to bring a smile to the faces of fans both young and old.

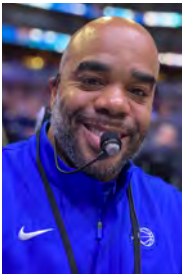

Our lovable dragon STUFF took his fame to new heights in 2014. After a game-time decision to propose to supermodel Kate Upton, STUFF was seen on several media outlets and was even discussed on TMZ. That wasn't enough for the big green guy. STUFF delivered a dance-off challenge to Hashtag, the mascot of the "Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon." While the show was visiting Orlando on June 18, 2014, STUFF and Hashtag battled it out in an epic dance-off on national television. The result was a tie. In March of 2015, STUFF made ESPN's Top Ten Plays with his dangerous and exciting backflip dunk off a 16-foot ladder. STUFF was also named the NBA's Mascot of the Year for 2015-16 and 2016-17, making him the first ever back-to-back recipient. Most recently, STUFF added another major honor to his résumé, being selected as the 2026 NBA Mascot of the Year.

STAFF

MAKE IT MAGIC

ALEX MARTINS
Vice Chair/Alternate Governor

Alex Martins, who has spent 39 years in professional sports management, serves as vice chair of the Orlando Magic. In this position, he will act as a senior advisor to the Magic Board of Directors to advance long-term strategic initiatives and serve as a resource to Magic executives.

Martins also represents the Magic as the team's alternate governor to the NBA Board of Governors, as well as oversees all operations of the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL and the Osceola Magic of the NBA G League.

Martins served as the Orlando Magic's chief executive officer for 14 seasons (2011-25). He has held various senior-level management capacities with the Magic between 1989-98 and upon his return to the organization in 2005, including director of media relations, executive vice president of marketing and franchise relations, president and chief operating officer.

During his tenure as CEO, Martins led a transformation of the Magic's business operations, while overseeing a ticket sales, premium sales and corporate partnership effort which saw the most successful business years in the history of the franchise. Additionally, in March of 2024, the Sports Business Journal named the Magic as one of the "Best Places to Work in Sports," the only franchise in the four major professional sports leagues to receive the recognition.

His effort and collaboration with local business and political leaders helped to secure the Kia Center as a sports and entertainment home, which opened in October 2010. The Kia Center was named the Sports Business Journal's Sports Facility of the Year in 2012.

In March 2026, Martins was the 14th person inducted into the Orlando Magic Hall of Fame.

Martins has also held senior executive positions with the New Orleans Hornets, the NFL's Cleveland Browns and Tavistock Group. He started his career as a student assistant in the Villanova sports information department, assisted in the Philadelphia 76ers public relations department and was also the assistant sports information director at Georgetown University.

Martins currently serves as the Chair of the UCF Board of Trustees.

Martins earned his MBA from the University of Central Florida, where he is a member of the College of Business Administration's Hall of Fame and recipient of University's Distinguished Alumnus Award. He earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Villanova University in 1986.

Martins and his wife, Juliet, reside in Winter Park, Fla. and have two daughters, Sophia and Gabrielle.

CHARLES FREEMAN
President of Business Operations

Charles Freeman is entering his 31st season with the Orlando Magic. In June 2025, his role as president of business operations was expanded to oversee all aspects of the organization's business operations, including personnel, ticket sales, global partnerships, arena operations, philanthropy, finance, human resources, communications and broadcasting. Freeman reports directly to the Orlando Magic Board of Directors. Freeman is responsible for leading the organization's long-term business strategy, with a focus on organizational development, innovation, technology, fan engagement and continued business growth.

Freeman has held numerous positions within the Magic organization, starting as a market research analyst in 1996. He has served as business development manager, senior vice president of business development, chief revenue officer and chief operating officer, prior to being appointed president of business operations in 2018.

Freeman played a leadership role in the design, development and construction of Kia Center, which opened in October 2010 and remains one of the NBA's premier sports and entertainment venues. In 2012, He was named one of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40, a recognition honoring the nation's top sports executives under the age of 40. Freeman also serves as the Sports Business Executive in Residence for High Point University.

A graduate of Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla., Freeman and his wife, Pam, live in Orlando, Fla. They have two children, Charlie and Addison.

JIM FRITZ
Chief Financial Officer

Jim Fritz, who has 39 years of experience in management, including the last 32 years with the Orlando Magic, was promoted to chief financial officer in May 2006. Fritz's responsibilities include executive management of the organization's financial affairs, as well as legal services, risk management and insurance, and aviation.

In his role, Fritz oversees the accounting, financial reporting, debt financing and treasury management functions. In addition, he serves the business on strategic planning and business development initiatives. Fritz has previously held the Magic's controller, director and vice president of finance positions during the previous 11 years.

Prior to joining the Magic, Fritz worked for five years in the assurance services practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers and for two years at Hotel Management Associates where he served as Corporate Controller. Fritz received his master's and undergraduate degrees in accounting from Florida State University and he is a Certified Public Accountant. Fritz serves on the Board of Directors for the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation as its treasurer, and he also serves on the Audit & Finance Committee of the Orlando Economic Partnership.

MICHAEL FORDE
Chief Sales Officer

Michael Forde is entering his 23rd season with the Orlando Magic and was named chief sales officer in 2017. He leads the organization's revenue-generating strategy and global partnerships initiatives.

Forde is responsible for driving business growth for the Orlando Magic, Kia Center and the organization's expanding sports and entertainment assets, through strategic partnerships, sponsorship development, hospitality offerings and integrated marketing solutions.

As a member of the executive leadership team, Forde oversees the global partnerships department, working with local, regional and national brands to create innovative marketing platforms that connect businesses with Magic fans and the Central Florida community. They also develop and execute strategic partnerships that leverage the reach and influence of the Orlando Magic, Kia Center and affiliated properties.

Forde also plays a key leadership role in the commercial development of Westcourt, Orlando's emerging sports and entertainment district. He will assist in helping to shape partnership strategy, business development opportunities and long-term revenue growth for one of the most significant mixed-use developments in Central Florida.

In addition, Forde provides strategic business development leadership for the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL and Osceola Magic of the NBA G League.

Forde began with the Magic as a partnership development manager and was later promoted to assistant director of corporate partnerships during the summer of 2008. He was then named director of corporate partnerships in August 2009, vice president of corporate partnership sales in July 2012 and senior vice president of corporate partnerships and premium sales in March 2014.

A respected leader within both the sports and business communities, Forde serves on the Greater Orlando Sports Commission, where he is past chair. He formerly served as the Chair of Orlando's Local Organizing committee of the NCAA men's basketball tournament in 2017.

He also produced and directed in-arena video productions, as well as Solar Bears game broadcasts on Sun Sports. Eastham was promoted to director of broadcasting for the Magic in July 2013. In 2001, he began producing local game broadcasts for the Magic and now enters his 25th season in that role.

Eastham earned his bachelor's degree in telecommunications from Indiana University in 1993, with minors in business and Spanish. He and his wife, Tiffany, reside in Apopka, Fla., and have two sons, Tyler and Zackary, and two grandchildren, Tanner and Riley.

PAT GALLAGHER
Vice President of the Sports and Entertainment District

Pat Gallagher is currently in his 24th season with the organization and was promoted to vice president of the Sports and Entertainment District (SED) in July 2023. In this role, he oversees the development of the SED, the mixed-use project, now known as Westcourt, planned to be built adjacent to the Kia Center.

Gallagher began his career with the Magic in 2003 as an intern in the business strategy department. He was hired full-time in 2004 to launch the Magic's tourism sales department. In 2005, he was promoted to business strategy manager, where he was responsible for assisting with the strategic planning for, and the execution of, renovation projects within the Magic's former arena, including a new courtside club, a suite level club, and a reconfigured courtside seating plan. He also executed the arena name change from TD Waterhouse Centre to Amway Arena.

In 2007, Gallagher was promoted to business development and strategy manager and oversaw the design and build-out of the Magic's experience center for the new arena. He also was a key member of the new arena project team, working on all aspects of the development, design and construction of the Kia Center. Upon completion of the Kia Center project closeout process in 2012, he was promoted to assistant director of legal services and subsequently to general counsel. In this role, Gallagher and his co-counsel established the Magic's in-house legal department. In 2014, Gallagher added SED oversight to his role when he was promoted to general counsel and project director. In 2015, he was promoted to director of the SED.

Gallagher graduated from West Chester University in Pennsylvania with a bachelor's degree in communication studies in 2000 and received his JD from Tulane Law School in 2003. He is a member of the Florida Bar.

Originally from Philadelphia, Pa., Gallagher and his wife, Barb, reside in Orlando, Fla.

BRENDA HAYSLETT
Vice President of People

Brenda Hayslett, SPHR is entering her 20th season with the Orlando Magic and was promoted to vice president of people in July 2019. She oversees benefits, compensation, employee relations, employee engagement and human resources administration for the Orlando Magic, Osceola Magic and the Orlando Solar Bears.

Hayslett started with the Magic in July 2007 and previously served in the roles of human resources manager, assistant director of human resources, director of human resources and senior director of people.

Prior to 2007, Hayslett worked as a paralegal before joining Invacare Corporation, an international medical manufacturing company, where she worked for 17 years. Hayslett began her HR career in 1999 as a recruiter before relocating to Central Florida.

Hayslett earned a BS degree in paralegalism from Dyke College, a private business college in Cleveland, Ohio. She received her MA degree in business and human resources management from the University of Central Florida. Hayslett holds a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) designation, a professional certification through the Society for Human Resource Management.

In 2018, Hayslett joined the board of directors for A Gift for Teaching (www.AGiftFor Teaching.org), whose mission is to improve education by providing resources and surplus materials free to teachers for their students in need.

Hayslett resides in Winter Springs, Fla. with her husband, Scott and their Australian Labradoodle, Piper.

GEOFF KROHMER
Vice President of Live Entertainment and Production

Geoff Krohmer enters his 22nd season with the Orlando Magic and was promoted to vice president of live entertainment and production in July 2022. His responsibilities include overseeing game presentation, content and graphic production, as well as social media strategy and engagement for the Orlando Magic.

Krohmer originally joined the Magic in 2005 as a broadcasting intern and joined the organization full-time in July 2006 as an associate producer. During his three seasons in that role, he supported the telecasts and in-arena video production. While opening Kia Center in 2010, Krohmer was responsible for management of all postproduction work as the coordinating producer until then being named assistant director of broadcast production in 2014. In 2016, he was named director of live entertainment and production and served in that role until being promoted to vice president in 2022.

Krohmer graduated in 2004 from Full Sail University in Winter Park, Fla. where he earned a bachelor's degree in entertainment business and an associate degree in film and television production.

Originally from Grand Rapids, Mich., Krohmer and his wife, Leigh Ann, reside in Winter Garden, Fla. with their daughter, Taylor, and son, Oliver.

CHUCK LICHTY
Vice President of Premium, Season and Plan Sales

Chuck Lichty enters his 14th season with the Orlando Magic and was promoted to vice president of premium, season and plan sales in June 2022. His responsibilities include overseeing sales for the Kia Center including new season tickets, new premium suites, partial plans and hospitality for both the Orlando Magic and Kia Center.

When Lichty started with the Magic in 2013, he was hired as ticket sales manager, overseeing the entry level sales program. After a year and a half, he was promoted to senior manager of season and plan sales. In 2016, Lichty was promoted to assistant director of season and plan sales. He was promoted to director of season and plan sales in 2017. In 2020, Lichty began to oversee all premium inventory and was promoted to director of premium, season and plan sales.

Prior to joining the Magic in 2013, Lichty worked in Major League Baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates as a new business development executive.

Lichty graduated in 2011 from Ohio University with a bachelor's degree in sport management and received a minor in business. He and his wife, Anne, reside in Longwood, Fla., and have three children, Leo, Mia and Levi.

MARITZA MARTINEZ-GUERRERO
Vice President of External Affairs and Philanthropy

Maritza Martinez-Guerrero was named as vice president of external affairs and philanthropy for the Orlando Magic in February 2023. She joined the organization after serving in various roles at the University of Central Florida for 22 years, most recently as the associate vice president for division of government and community relations, and director at the office of community relations and economic development.

Her role includes oversight of community impact, philanthropy, the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation and government affairs for the Magic.

While at UCF, Martinez-Guerrero was a senior level advisor to the president, vice presidents and senior administrators as it related to the university's external standing and reputation, oversaw the university's community relations initiatives and strategies, and advanced the university's economic development pursuits. She also supported UCF's legislative efforts with local, state and federal officials.

In addition to her work at UCF, Martinez-Guerrero served on nine boards in the Central Florida area including Heart of Florida United Way, National Center for Simulation, National Entrepreneur Center, Orlando Shakes and the Winter Park Health Foundation, to name a few. She is a graduate of Leadership Florida, Leadership Orlando, Leadership Winter Park and Leadership West Orange. Martinez-Guerrero has been recognized by multiple publications for her community work and impact: Orange Appeal Woman of the Year, Onyx Magazine Woman on the Move, Vision Magazine Most Influential Hispanic and Orlando Business Journal Woman to Watch. She has also been honored with the Hispanic Chamber Don Quijote Excellence Award and as a UCF College of Business Hall of Fame Honorable Knight.

Martinez-Guerrero earned her bachelor of arts in general studies, her master of arts in higher education and her master of business administration degrees all from UCF.

She resides in Orlando, Fla. with her husband of 26 years, Julio E. Guerrero, and their two daughters, Juliana and Mariana.

PAUL MOLETTEIRE

Vice President of Ticket Operations

Paul Moletteire is currently in his 34th season with the Orlando Magic. He was promoted to vice president of ticket operations in July 2017. Moletteire is responsible for managing the ticket operations of both the Orlando Magic and Kia Center.

Moletteire started as a media relations intern in August 1991 and was hired full-time in September 1992 as a box office representative. He was subsequently promoted to ticket services manager in January 1999 and to assistant director of fan relations in December 2004. In July 2006, he was promoted to director of season ticket services and operations. In August 2009, his role was changed in preparation of the opening of the Kia Center in 2010. His current focus is on ticket operations for the team, in addition to providing leadership for the day-to-day activities of the Kia Center's ticket operations and box office.

Moletteire received his bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Central Florida in 1989. He is currently on the grant review committee for the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation.

Moletteire and his wife, Vicki, reside in Oviedo, Fla., and have a son, Jack and a daughter, Kara.

JOHN YOUNGBLOOD

Vice President of Premium and Client Services and Fan Experience

John Youngblood enters his ninth season with the Orlando Magic and was promoted to vice president of premium and client services and fan experience in July 2024. His responsibilities include developing retention strategies and maximizing revenue, while creating legendary fan experiences for Orlando Magic premium partners, season ticket holders and fans throughout the Kia Center and during Orlando Magic home games.

Youngblood started with the Magic in 2018, when he was hired as the assistant director of client services, where he oversaw season ticket retention. After being named director of client services in 2019, Youngblood was later promoted to director of client services and fan experience in 2020 and senior director of premium and client services and fan experience in 2022.

Prior to joining the Magic in 2018, Youngblood spent time in minor league baseball with the Portland Sea Dogs, Columbus Catfish, and the Connecticut Defenders in various roles. He also spent 10 years in management with PepsiCo and four years as the vice president of sales and operations for Everything But the House, a startup based in Cincinnati, Oh.

Youngblood graduated with a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Southern Maine in 2005. A native of South Berwick, Me., he and his wife, Melissa, reside in Altamonte Springs, Fla., and have three children, Iain, Avery and Sienna.

MEDIA

MAKE IT MAGIC

COMMUNICATIONS

GEORGE GALANTE
Vice President of Communications and Alumni Relations

George Galante begins his 32nd season with the organization and was promoted to vice president of communications and alumni relations in July 2023.

Galante supports all areas of the communications department, including serving as managing editor of all media guides, compiling game notes, coordinating interview requests with players and front office personnel, writing press releases, maintaining statistical information and traveling on the road with the team.

Galante also helps to oversee the Orlando Magic Alumni Network, which enhances the organization's relationship with former players, while re-engaging them in the community through appearances at games, camps, fundraisers and other events.

Galante was co-host of Magic Overtime with Dante and Galante, the team's weekly television show that profiled Magic players and personalities, from 2008-12, as well as various other programs which were found on the Orlando Magic's social media accounts. He also served as co-host of the team's official podcast, The Orlando Magic Pod Squad.

Following an internship with the Magic during their run to the 1995 NBA Finals, Galante joined the organization full-time in August of 1995, spending four seasons as public relations manager for the Orlando Solar Bears of the International Hockey League (1995-99). While with the Solar Bears, he also served as chairman of the IHL's Public Relations Advisory Board. Galante was named assistant director of communications for the Magic in 1999, promoted to director of communications in 2007, then named senior director of communications in 2019.

In the community, Galante volunteered his time assisting the boys' lacrosse team at Lake Brantley High School, coordinating team communications and serving as public address announcer for four years (2023-26). He also spent several years as a youth basketball and baseball coach.

Galante earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration from Stetson University in 1996, where he was a student assistant in the sports information department. He assumed SID duties for women's soccer and cross country, and also spent one summer as assistant director of public relations for Daytona Beach of the United States Basketball League.

A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Galante and his wife, Laura, reside in Apopka, Fla. with their sons, John and Jim, and daughter, Kate.

TRISH WINGERSON
Vice President of Public Relations

Entering her 31st year with the Magic, Wingerson was promoted to vice president of public relations in 2024. Prior to that, she was the senior director of communications after spending six years as the director of public relations.

Her primary responsibilities include all off-the-court publicity efforts for the Magic and serving as the public relations liaison for the Osceola Magic and the Orlando Solar Bears. She also oversees the team's copy editing; supervises the communications stats crew and game night staff; assists with player appearances/requests, interviews, press conferences, photo requests, written team communication; and supports all areas of the communications department including the creation of communications strategy, crisis communication and PR initiatives.

Wingerson began her tenure during the Magic's run to the 1995 NBA Finals as an intern in the communications department. Prior to joining the Magic, she worked as a reporter for WUFT-TV and WUFT-FM in Gainesville, Fla.

Wingerson volunteers her time in the community with the Magic's various community initiatives. She currently serves as co-chair on the Magic's Gamechang(HER)s Employee Resource Group. She has also served on the Magic's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Task Force; the committee for the Orlando Wine Festival and Auction benefiting the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF); the OMYF Grant VIP Committee and Scholarship Committee. She also volunteered her time as the membership recruitment and marketing co-chair for the Edgewater High School crew team and served as treasurer of the Edgewater High School girls' soccer team.

Previously, she served on boards for the Children's Home Society, assisting with the communications committee, and the Orlando Ballet; and has worked with the Orlando/Orange County Convention and Visitors Bureau Public Relations Committee, and the Lighthouse Central Florida Marketing Advisory Council. She is a 2006 graduate of the WOMEN Unlimited TEAM program and a 2017 graduate of the Accendo LEADForward program and serves as a mentor for Women in Sports and Events (WISE) Greater Orlando organization. She also enjoys mentoring and speaking with students pursuing careers in communications.

Wingerson, a member of the Florida Public Relations Association and the Association for Women in Sports Media, graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in telecommunication, broadcast news. She and her husband, Kirk, reside in Orlando, Fla. with their daughters, Kaya and Keaton.

LOUIS AXEN
Communications Specialist

Louis Axen enters his sixth season as communications specialist with the Orlando Magic, joining the team in August 2021.

Axen supports the communications department and serves as a liaison between the media and the Orlando Magic. His responsibilities include handling media credentials, contributing to media guides and game day programs, writing press releases and more.

Axen earned a bachelor's degree in radio/television from the University of Central Florida in 2017, where he was a multimedia assistant for UCF Athletics. During his time with UCF Athletics, he mainly assisted the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as the baseball team. His duties involved audio/video production, capturing photographs/videos of the teams, working alongside credentialed media and shadowing broadcasters.

While in college, Axen hosted a weekly sports talk radio show called "Ball Knight" on WNSC. Upon graduating, he worked as a news producer for Cox Media Group in Orlando and took over as the public address announcer for Oviedo High School's varsity football team.

Following his stint in radio and news, Axen took on a role in marketing and advertising with Clear Channel Outdoor in 2018. His duties there included the planning and executing of out-of-home marketing strategies, driving revenue and ensuring client satisfaction through the full implementation of their campaigns.

A native of Miami, Fla., Axen and his wife, Carolyn, reside in Winter Springs, Fla.

MAGIC TV 27

DANTE MARCHITELLI
Television Play-by-Play

Dante Marchitelli enters his 28th season with the Orlando Magic. He was named the team's television play-by-play announcer in July 2026.

Marchitelli began his career with the Magic in 1998 as a radio intern. He was hired full-time in January 2000 as radio producer, working behind the scenes on every broadcast for the Magic Radio Network. Marchitelli was promoted in 2005 to radio manager and also served as radio sideline reporter. His role was expanded in 2008 to television as studio host and sideline reporter, while also performing play-by-play duties for select games starting in 2023. Marchitelli was named assistant director of broadcasting in July 2017, then promoted to director of broadcasting and alumni relations in July 2023.

In addition to his game-day duties, Marchitelli serves as co-host of Magic Insiders, which airs Monday-Friday from 3-3:30 p.m. on 96.9 The Game throughout the NBA season. Each day, he and Jake Chapman, Orlando's radio play-by-play announcer, are joined by a rotation of special guests, including Magic/NBA players, broadcasters, front office personnel and more. Marchitelli also served as co-host of the team's official podcast, The Orlando Magic Pod Squad. He was also co-host of Magic Overtime with Dante and Galante, the team's weekly television show that profiled Magic players and personalities, from 2008-12, as well as various other programs which were found on the Orlando Magic's social media accounts.

Marchitelli also helps to oversee the Orlando Magic Alumni Network. The Orlando Magic Alumni Network enhances the organization's relationship with former players, while re-engaging them in the community through appearances at games, camps, fundraisers and other events.

Marchitelli earned a bachelor's degree in public relations/advertising from Liberty University in 1998.

A native of Woburn, Mass., Marchitelli and his wife, Lana, reside in Windermere, Fla. with their daughters, Olivia (13) and Allison (12).

JEFF TURNER
Television Color Analyst

NBA veteran Jeff Turner returns for his 14th season as Orlando's television color analyst. He joins Dante Marchitelli and Kendra Douglas to call the action.

Turner made his Magic broadcasting debut in April 1996 as radio color analyst on the Magic Radio Network and spent nine full seasons in that role from 1996-2005. He also spent parts of two seasons (2011-13) as studio host. Turner also served as co-host of the team's official podcast, The Orlando Magic Pod Squad.

During the spring of 2005, Turner was named leadership development coordinator at Lake Highland Preparatory School in Orlando. In addition, he served as the school's head varsity basketball coach for eight seasons (2005-13), compiling a record of 151-72 (.677). Turner led the program to a district title in 2010-11 and a runner-up finish for the Class 4A state crown in 2011-12, before guiding the Highlanders to the Florida Class 4A State Championship in 2012-13.

Originally selected in the first round (17th overall) by New Jersey in the 1984 NBA Draft, Turner appeared in 612 NBA regular season games during his career with New Jersey and Orlando, averaging 6.0 ppg. and 3.3 rpg. After spending three seasons with the Nets and two years in the Italian Basketball League (1987-89), Turner became a member of Orlando's inaugural squad in 1989. In 411 games (176 starts) with the Magic, he averaged 6.5 ppg. and 3.6 rpg., and helped them reach the 1995 NBA Finals. Turner, who retired in March of 1996, still ranks among Orlando's all-time leaders in games played (tied for ninth).

A graduate of Vanderbilt, Turner was an All-SEC First Team selection as a senior (1984) and a two-time All-SEC Academic selection (1983-84). He was a member of the 1984 Olympic Gold Medal basketball team.

Turner and his wife, Dee Dee, have two daughters, Allie and Emma, and two grandsons, Leo and Max.

KENDRA DOUGLAS
Team Reporter

Kendra Douglas begins her fourth season with the Orlando Magic as team reporter. She will serve as sideline reporter for select game telecasts, as well as correspondent for the team's social media channels.

She is a fill-in sideline reporter for the Tampa Bay Rays and a sideline reporter with ESPN, covering college sports for the ACC Network. A two-time Edward R. Murrow Award winner, sports anchor and reporter, Douglas spent three years (2020-23) as a sports anchor and reporter at WESH 2 News (WESH-TV NBC) in Orlando. In addition to covering the Magic while at WESH, Douglas covered the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during the team's Super Bowl run in 2021, as well as the Tampa Bay Rays, both the NWSL and MLS, and a range of other teams in Central Florida. She won an Edward R. Murrow regional award for her story on former NFL player "HaHa" Clinton-Dix, sharing how the town of Eatonville helped shape him into the person he is today.

Before coming to Florida, Douglas spent nearly two years (2018-20) as a sports anchor and reporter at KSN News 3 in Wichita, Kansas. While at KSN, she covered many teams and stories, including the Kansas City Chiefs' Super Bowl run in 2020, as well as the story of a Wichita State track athlete's return to competition after almost losing his life in a house fire. Douglas was part of the sports team that won a KABJ first place award for its Friday Football Fever show.

Prior to covering sports in Wichita, Douglas worked in Wilmington, North Carolina. She also interned as a flash quote reporter for the Olympic News Service, interviewing archery and track athletes at the Rio Olympic Games during the summer of 2016.

Her honors also include an NABJ award for sports reporting. She is a 2026 Orlando Business Journal 40 Under 40 honoree.

Douglas is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, receiving a bachelor of arts degree in media and journalism, with a concentration in broadcast and electronic journalism. While at UNC, she was a member of the track team and competed in the 400-meter race at the ACC Tournament. Douglas has served as a committee chair for the Junior League of Orlando, is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. and has served as a Cure Bowl Ambassador.

JAKE CHAPMAN

Radio Producer/Play-By-Play Announcer

Jake Chapman enters his 14th season with the Orlando Magic, 13th as radio producer and fifth as radio play-by-play announcer. You can hear Chapman call all of the action on 96.9 The Game and the Magic Audio Network.

This marks Chapman's 18th season covering the NBA. In addition to his play-by-play duties, he also serves as the radio producer for the Magic Audio Network. Chapman also serves as a co-host of the team's official podcast offerings.

Chapman began his career with the Magic in 2006 as a radio intern. He became the Magic's radio producer in 2009 and served in that role until 2014. During Chapman's first stint as radio producer, he produced Eastern Conference Finals game broadcasts, oversaw the launch of the Magic's daily radio show, built up Magic Audio's social media presence and helped with the digitization process of Magic Audio's studio operations. He left the Magic in 2014 to become the pre- and postgame host and executive producer of the Detroit Pistons Radio Network. After his stay in Detroit, Chapman worked in his native Cleveland, Oh. as a producer and host for 92.3 The Fan and the Cleveland Browns Radio Network. He also covered the Cleveland Cavaliers' 2018 trip to the NBA Finals.

When Chapman returned to the Magic in 2019, he worked to expand the Magic's podcast offerings - the Orlando Magic Audio Network. He continued producing all Magic radio broadcasts while adding pre-and post-game hosting responsibilities for all games. Chapman also re-assumed producing and co-hosting duties for Magic Insiders, the Magic's daily radio show on its flagship station, 96.9 The Game.

A native of Cleveland, Oh., Chapman earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the Ohio State University in 2006. He and his wife, Kelly, currently live in Apopka, Fla., with their daughter, Josie (3).

KIA CENTER: BEYOND LEGENDARY

FROM A VISION TO BLUEPRINTS TO REALITY

The Orlando Magic served as the developer of the downtown Kia Center, which competes to host major national events, concerts and family shows. The facility is owned and operated by the City of Orlando on behalf of the Central Florida community.

The Kia Center opened in 2010 and was designed to reflect the character of the community, meet the goals of the users and build on the legacy of sports and entertainment in Orlando.

The building's exterior features a modern blend of glass and metal materials, along with ever-changing graphics via a monumental wall along one façade. A 180-foot tall tower and spire serves as a beacon amid the downtown skyline.

2017 VENUE EXCELLENCE AWARD

In August 2017, the Kia Center was recognized with the prestigious Venue Excellence Award from IAVM – the International Association of Venue Managers. The Kia Center was the only arena to earn the honor.

The Venue Excellence Award recognizes five IAVM venues of any type within the membership which demonstrate excellence in the management and operation of public assembly venues. This includes but is not limited to amphitheaters, arenas, auditoriums, casinos, complexes, convention centers, exhibit halls, fair/festival grounds, performing arts centers, race tracks, stadiums & university venues. IAVM takes pride in its members and member venues that excel in providing their communities with a safe and enjoyable space for all types of events and educational opportunities.

Any venue, publicly or privately owned and operated, that has demonstrated excellence within the last calendar year and has at least one current employee who is an IAVM member in good standing may apply.

The following four criteria framework help demonstrate the ways in which the venue has demonstrated excellence in venue management and operations: operational excellence, team-building/professional development, safety and security, and service to the community.

2013 CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE AWARD

The Kia Center was honored on June 6, 2013 with the Customer Experience Award during TheStadiumBusiness Awards presentation held in association with TheStadiumBusiness Summit in Manchester, England.

TheStadiumBusiness Summit is the largest dedicated meeting in the world of the owners, operators and developers of the world's leading stadiums, arenas and major sports venues. Previous recipients have included City Square/Etihad Stadium, Manchester City FC, Manchester, England (2012), The Family Area – Cardiff City FC, Cardiff, Wales (2011) and The O2 Arena, London, England (2010).

With the opening of the Kia Center in 2010, the Orlando Magic spearheaded a specialized customer service training program in conjunction with the Disney Institute for all Kia Center employees. Annually the initiative provides training to more than 2,000 employees.

The criteria for a Customer Experience Award nomination requires that the stadium, arena or major sports venue consistently deliver outstanding levels of service at every stage of the customer journey.

2012 FACILITY OF THE YEAR

At a sports industry annual awards ceremony on May 23, 2012, the Kia Center was named "Facility of the Year."

The announcement was made by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily at the prestigious SportsBusiness Awards in New York City, which annually recognizes excellence and outstanding achievement in the business of sports.

Kia Center served as host for the 2012 NBA All-Star Weekend in Orlando, culminating with the 61st NBA All-Star Game on Sunday, February 26. In a thrilling contest, the West defeated the East, 152-149. More than $95 million in economic impact in Orange County, Florida was generated from NBA All-Star Weekend, according to a study conducted by Strategic Marketing Services and SportsEconomics, LLC. In addition, the NBA All-Star Game at the Kia Center provided unprecedented exposure, as the contest was broadcast in 215 countries and territories in 47 different languages.

AMENITIES FOR ALL LEVELS OF TICKET BUYERS

The 875,000 square foot, Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold certified building features a sustainable, environmentally-friendly design and unmatched technology, including 1,100 digital monitors and multiple premium amenities available to all patrons in the building.

Every level of ticket buyer has access to a number of premium amenities.

"It's a great day for Central Florida. History will look back on this day in the same light as the day that Walt Disney announced he was building his theme park in Orlando," Magic Vice Chair Alex Martins said the night of the approval, July 26, 2007, adding: "I would like to thank Mayor Rich Crotty and Mayor Buddy Dyer, as well as both the County and City Commissions for their vision and leadership. I would also like to thank the Walt Disney World Company, Universal Orlando, SeaWorld, the Central Florida Hotel and Lodging Association, the Orlando/Orange County Convention and Visitors Bureau, as well as the entire Orlando tourism and business community for their active participation in ensuring this positive outcome for new downtown sports and entertainment facilities for the people who call Central Florida home."

The Magic were major financial participants in the public-private partnership - contributing $50 million toward construction of the Kia Center, $10 million toward the arts center, and $25 million toward construction of five community recreation centers. The Magic's other contributions toward operations, fundraising and financing push the team's total participation in the downtown venue projects to more than $150 million.

In a historic move, the Magic agreed that Kia Center would be designed and constructed to meet the certification criteria for an environmentally "green" building development standard.

"We want this facility to not only serve our community but to reflect our community's values," Martins said.

Populous, formerly HOK Sport, was selected as designer of the Kia Center. Hunt Construction group was selected as the construction manager. The official groundbreaking celebration was held July 25, 2008. The events center was originally named the Amway Center on August 5, 2009 and the building opened to the public for the first time on October 1, 2010. It was renamed the Kia Center on December 20, 2023.

Inside the arena, patrons will find modern amenities in a comfortable setting – ideal for hosting family events as well as basketball games. Concourses are spacious, offering unique concessions and activities for kids and adults alike. The Michelob Ultra Baseline Bar on the main Terrace concourse overlooks the event floor, and children will enjoy spending time in the kid-oriented STUFF's Magic Castle Presented by Uncle Matt's Organic and retail opportunities on the upper Promenade concourse.

"From the inside out, beginning to end we were committed to developing a world class venue that would bring a myriad of events that would appeal to the diverse taste of Central Florida residents," said Mayor Buddy Dyer. "Whether it's a child experiencing his or her first basketball game or two friends singing along at a concert, these are the shared experiences and memories that will be created at the Kia Center."

With 875,000 square feet of space, the Kia Center offers plenty of room to incorporate the modern-day amenities found in most professional arenas of today, and seating which is expandable to more than 20,000 seats to accommodate major national events.

The $380 million facility features eight levels, five public concourses, 37 restrooms, 55 concession points of sale, 60 suites, 68 loge boxes and 1,400 club seats. The Kia Center features up to 17 hospitality spaces for rental on a per event basis.

UNIQUELY ORLANDO

"We took a hard and long look at the essence of Orlando before coming up with a design that we believe reflects the best and most distinctive aspects of this community," said AIA, Populous Sport Senior Designer Brad Clark. "And just as importantly, the building will set a new standard in sustainable design as one of the greenest professional sports facilities in the country."

To celebrate Central Florida's moderate climate, the building is filled with a variety of indoor-outdoor spaces. Once guests enter the voluminous, 80-foot-tall Disney Atrium main lobby, they are able to return to the outdoors via the NUTRL Terrace overlooking Church Street.

The arena was designed to respond to its distinct urban setting while revealing the activities occurring within. Bounded by Church Street, Hughey Avenue, South Street and Division Avenue, the arena's primary entrance faces north to Church Street, creating a natural extension of the nearby downtown entertainment core. The Church Street entry features a large public entry plaza connecting the arena's spacious Disney Atrium.

"In designing the community's new center we feel we created the framework for a facility that will be the catalyst for economic revitalization in downtown's west side, while establishing a flexible design that will serve as a great home and attract the nation's premier events," added the Magic's Martins. "The building has a design unique to Orlando, while providing a framework for environmental sustainability."

JOBS IN A TOUGH ECONOMY

The massive construction project served as a boon to the local construction business in a time when jobs were scarce because of the sharp downturn of the nation's economy.

The Magic and City of Orlando worked closely with local minority and women-owned businesses — some of which were based out of the nearby Parramore community — awarding them with more than 30 percent of the contracts totaling $90-plus million, exceeding the 24 percent benchmark established by the City of Orlando.

Of the 170-plus minority and women-owned firms which worked to construct the facility, 61 were African-American-owned firms, 52 women-owned firms, 37 Hispanic-owned firms, 22 Asian-American-owned firms and two Native-American-owned firms.

ENVIRONMENTALLY-FRIENDLY

Sustainable design and construction specifics focused on the opportunities to create an environmentally-friendly building in various categories. Among them: providing water efficiency; optimizing energy and atmosphere protection; conserving materials and resources; monitoring indoor environmental quality and health; selecting environmentally preferred operations and maintenance.

These elements combine to create one of the most environmentally-friendly, high-performing professional arenas in the country and the first NBA arena which was originally designed and constructed to be Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold certified.

ONE OF THE MOST TECHNOLOGICALLY-ADVANCED BUILDINGS IN NORTH AMERICA

The ANC boxcar center-hung scoreboard includes a 4mm exterior display nearly 30 feet tall and spanning 174' in circumference with a 2.5mm underbelly display measuring 11'7" tall and 142.5' in circumference. The center hung display has more than 53,000,000 pixels of resolution. The center hung provides unlimited opportunities for the display of game footage and statistics, replays, player intros, fan engagement activities, and partner and sponsor activations.

Complementing the primary center hung are four (4) 10mm corner board LED displays each measuring 10' x 80'9" with more than 763,000 pixels of resolution, a 10mm display in the South end of the arena measuring 21' x 50' with more than 6,200,000 pixels of resolution, and two (2) 10mm LED ribbon boards mounted on the interior fascia of the seating decks.

The Kia Center also provides numerous high tech LED wayfinding and fan engagement LED displays including double-sided wayfinding LED signs in the Disney Atrium, multiple large LED fan engagement displays on the Terrace Level and a talent welcome LED display on the Event level.

The arena has more than 1,100 screens of high-definition content via Internet Protocol Television and a digital signage network which maximizes fan engagement and interaction, as well as providing unlimited opportunities for advertisers and sponsors.

The bigger size, flexibility and advanced technology allows Orlando to attract bigger concerts, major political conventions and compete for more major sporting events such as conference and NCAA tournaments.

"We've designed a facility that has so many built-in amenities for every level of ticket-buyer," Martins said. "So many of these buildings in the past have been designed where a lot of the amenities have focused only on the premium ticket-buyer, the courtside seat holder or the club seat holder, but here with the Kia Center, we have bars, restaurants and clubs on every level for every ticket-buyer; and that's for Magic games and every event. So, it really is a building that has a high level of amenity for everybody."

"Over the past three years, we have focused on revitalizing the Parramore neighborhood and have experienced a resurgence in our downtown," said Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer as the design for the building was unveiled on December 11, 2007. "Today marks another important day in our efforts, as the facility takes shape with the design unveiling of this new landmark…a landmark that will be a gathering place for all of Orlando and Central Florida."

ORLANDO SOLAR BEARS

ORLANDO SOLAR BEARS

The Orlando Solar Bears are the proud affiliate of the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning, celebrating its 15th anniversary season as members of the ECHL, the premier "AA" hockey league in North America. The Solar Bears are back-to-back Game Operations Team of the Year Award winners for the 2024-25 and 2025-26 seasons. The Solar Bears are owned and operated by the Orlando Magic and the DeVos Family, and play at the AdventHealth Rink at Kia Center, the 2012 Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year.

Officially licensed Orlando Solar Bears replica team jerseys, apparel, and headwear can be purchased at orlandosolarbearshockey.com/shop. For more information, please visit OrlandoSolarBearsHockey.com.

In an effort to continue the revitalization of downtown Orlando and Parramore and to centralize the Orlando Magic staff downtown, the team continues to make progress on the Sports and Entertainment development which will create jobs and provide dining, hotel, office, living, and entertainment options.

In April 2024, developers JMA Ventures LLC and Machete Group Inc. announced that the $500 million, mixed-use project will be named Westcourt.

Located on an eight-acre site bounded by Church Street to the south, Division Avenue to the west, Central Boulevard to the north, and Hughey Avenue to the east, Westcourt will feature 270 high-rise residences; a 261-room, 11-story Kimpton hotel; up to 300,000 square feet of office (which will include the Orlando Magic headquarters); 120,000 square feet of entertainment, dining and retail; a 3,500 capacity live event venue operated by Live Nation; multiple meeting spaces; and a 1,140 stall parking garage. The project will also include 1.5 acres of outdoor common area including a 28,000 square foot urban living room at the heart of the site.

"Like with the Kia Center, this has been several years of planning and working with the City to find the right avenue to add another iconic destination that will add to the core of downtown," said Magic Vice Chair Alex Martins. "We look forward to entering this new stage as we work with our partners to make Orlando a great place to live, work and play."

The Magic's major investment also continues their efforts in the revitalization of downtown Orlando and the Parramore neighborhood. The Magic and the Parramore community have long been partners in helping the citizens of that region. The Magic have given more than $1 million to the Parramore community while also donating thousands of community service hours, building nine reading and learning centers and two playgrounds, and providing hundreds of backpacks with school supplies.

Martins is proud that the Magic have been able to broaden their footprint downtown so that they can continue to be socio-economic growth catalysts for the area. Martins is also extremely proud that the Magic will continue to be leaders in the growth and development of Parramore.

"It's our neighborhood and it's important to us that we continue to help revitalize it," Martins said of Parramore. "We think this is another significant step. Like the great addition of Inter&Co Stadium, hopefully this is a spark for others to invest in that part of downtown. Downtown really stretches from Orange Avenue to Camping World Stadium. So, this is an opportunity to spark the western side of that stretch."
